Sleep Hacks Today:

Technosleep Catherine Coveney, Michael Greaney, Eric L. Hsu, Robert Meadows, Simon J. Williams, 2023-06-25 This book draws on a variety of substantive examples from science technology medicine literature and popular culture to highlight how a new technoscientifically mediated and modified phase and form of technosleep is now in the making in the global north at least and to discuss the consequences for our relationships to sleep the values we accord sleep and the very nature and normativities of sleep itself The authors discuss how technosleep at its simplest denotes the coming together or entanglements of sleep and technology and sensitizes us to various shifts in sleep technology relations through culture time and place In doing so it pays close attention to the salience and significance of these trends and transformations to date in everyday night life their implications for sleep inequalities and the related issues of sleep and social justice they suggest

School-based Practice with Children and Youth Experiencing Homelessness James Canfield, 2015-03-30 Schools are facing increasing numbers of homeless students and school social workers and other related professionals are often at the front line of addressing the negative impact homelessness brings to individual students and the school overall School social workers and other school based personnel must contend with a myriad of policies and other factors related to homelessness to help students obtain an education School based Practice with Children and Youth Experiencing Homelessness is one of the first books to focus on this topic in the context of our social work practice This book guides practitioners through the conceptualization of homelessness how experiencing homelessness impacts the children we serve the policies that govern us and finally a practice perspective Written with practitioners in mind School based Practice with Children and Youth Experiencing Homelessness is loaded with case studies and practice examples and is an accessible handbook to addressing homelessness in our schools
