Effective Teaching in Correctional Settings Robert G. Thomas, Robert Murray Thomas, 2008 This book has a dual purpose to identify problems faced by people who teach in correctional institutions and to propose solutions for those problems The intent of this book is to help both new instructors as well as current ones perform their jobs effectively The book is divided into three parts The first part introduces the reader to the field of correctional education describing correctional efforts in America the kinds of facilities the inmate populations and the controversies including advocates and critics over providing educational opportunities A description is provided on the kinds of educational and rehabilitation programs including the varieties and sources of teachers and administrators Part two explores the teaching process and how students are analyzed on their abilities learning disorders gender ethnicity gang membership length of imprisonment and reasons for enrolling in educational programs Each chapter is divided into two major sections the first section studies the perspective and the second section concerns problems and solutions Each problem is posed as a brief case study that includes the nature of a particular problem factors affecting decisions about what a teacher might do and one or more proposed solutions Part three summarizes key concepts from the previous chapters and speculates about the state of correctional education in the years ahead It will be of interest to those who contemplate a career in correctional education those who are already in correctional education or those who simply want to learn what teaching in a prison jail or juvenile facility is all about The Starting Reader , Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1983 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,1983 Surpassing Standards in the Elementary Classroom Lee R. Chasen, 2009 Surpassing Standards in the Elementary Classroom outlines a new theoretical and practical approach to classroom instruction and student achievement in language arts and social studies This inspirational guide provides elementary classroom teachers with comprehensive easy to implement lesson plans and specific activities that engage and integrate emotional intelligence skills in order to empower intellectual understanding within the academic curriculum The book would be an asset for undergraduate or graduate courses or teacher training programs that deal with elementary education educational theory and practice curriculum development content and instructional styles and is a valuable tool for elementary school teachers and counselors administrators staff developers college students training to be teachers and professional development and staff training seminars RTI in the Common Core Classroom Sharon Vaughn, Philip Capin, Garrett J. Roberts, Melodee A. Walker, 2016 Schools and teachers have struggled to integrate Common Core State Standards CCSS into their local Response to Intervention RTI systems This book offers an adaptable framework and practical tips to assist educational professionals charged with making this connection in their schools districts and classrooms for English language arts Based on years of experience we know that students perform best when provided with research based instruction frequent progress monitoring and timely and targeted interventions Focusing on what the research tells us about how children learn this highly practical guide can serve as the core of language arts instruction RTI in the Common Core Classroom will guide today s classroom teachers reading coaches and administrators in their efforts to support all students in meeting literacy standards including individuals with mild to moderate disabilities Book Features A research based innovative approach for implementing RTI and the Common Core curriculum Effective teaching and assessment practices in foundational reading skills reading comprehension and writing User friendly design including research highlight boxes recommended reading lists questions for professional learning communities prompts sample assignments student writing excerpts a Q A section and a trait weighting table Sharon Vaughn is the perfect classroom expert to help teachers mesh the requirements of any RTI program with high standards whether they be CCSS state or local Susan B Neuman New York University Teaching to the unique abilities of an increasingly diverse group of students is a persistent challenge in public education Whether used in a Common Core classroom or school system Dr Vaughn s new book is yet another invaluable tool for teachers and leaders to use RTI to accelerate achievement for all students Larkin Tackett executive director Austin Region IDEA Public Schools Teaching the Basic Sight Vocabulary Duane Doersch,1967 Teaching Reading to Every Child Diane Lapp,James Flood,1983 The Current ,1886 Let's Begin Reading Right Marjorie Vannoy Fields,Lois A. Groth,Katherine Spangler,2004 Written from a constructivist viewpoint this popular book for future teachers of children from preschool through the primary grades focuses on how young children construct literacy and how teachers can support and guide that activity through developmentally appropriate teaching practices Advocates giving children a choice of the reading material from which they will learn and caution against grouping children solely by literacy ability Examines current research into emergent and holistic literacy and tie its findings to instructional practices that teach such skills as phonemic awareness phonics and spelling within the context of meaningful reading and writing tasks Increased coverage of assessment emphasizes performance based alternatives to standardized testing during early childhood and examines current recommendations in terms of developmentally appropriate practice Provides a strong explanation of shared and interactive writing Discusses literacy development in infants and toddlers For future or current teachers interested in literacy or reading methods in early childhood National Parent-teacher Magazine ,1973 Teaching Reading Vocabulary Dale D.
