Artists Reality:

The Artist's Reality Mark Rothko, 2023-07-11 Mark Rothko's classic book on artistic practice ideals and philosophy now with an expanded introduction and an afterword by Makoto Fujimura. Stored in a New York City warehouse for many years after the artist's death, this extraordinary manuscript by Mark Rothko (1903-1970) was published to great acclaim in 2004. Probably written in 1940 or 1941, it contains Rothko's ideas on the modern art world, art history, myth, beauty, the challenges of being an artist in society, the true nature of American art, and much more. In his introduction, illustrated with examples of Rothko's work and pages from the manuscript, the artist's son Christopher Rothko describes the discovery of the manuscript and the fascinating process of its initial publication. This edition includes discussion of Rothko's Scribble Book (1932), his notes on teaching art to children, which has received renewed scholarly attention in recent years and provides clues to the genesis of Rothko's thinking on pedagogy. In an afterword written for this edition, artist and author Makoto Fujimura reflects on how Rothko's writings offer a lifeboat for art world refugees and a model for upholding artistic ideals. He considers the transcendent capacity of Rothko's paintings to express pure ideas and the significance of the decade-long gap between The Artist's Reality and Rothko's mature paintings during which the horrors of the Holocaust and the atomic bomb were unleashed upon the world.

The Artist's Reality Mark Rothko, 2004-01-01 This recently discovered manuscript by the celebrated artist Mark Rothko offers a landmark discussion of his views on topics ranging from the Renaissance to contemporary art criticism and the role of art and artists in society.

Impressionism was still a strong influence, but young artists were exploring numerous other avenues as well. Some turned to new sources of inspiration such as Japanese art and symbolism, while others were pushing stylization to its limits. International schools were followed closely by the Dutch artists, many of whom stayed for months at a time in Paris, the South of France, or London to study the new trends at close range. These developments, which roughly spanned the period 1885-1915, began with Van Gogh and ended with Mondrian. This book explores the significance of this period of art on paper. The selection gives an excellent impression of the range of work.
