Disconnected Milan Frankl, 2025-02-25 Disconnected Exploring the Decline of Social Networks examines the future of social networks highlighting their transformation from community builders to sources of misinformation and frustration Using interdisciplinary insights it uncovers the complex interplay of technological social and cultural factors behind this shift It discusses the impact on individuals businesses and society proposing pathways to a healthier digital environment The book delves into the fascinating journey of social networks tracing their evolution from tools that fostered community building to platforms that can sometimes spread misinformation It explores how privacy issues are crucial in shaping user experiences and trust Disconnected also examines the phenomenon of algorithmic polarization where algorithms create echo chambers and contribute to the spread of disinformation The author explores the social and cultural factors that influence social networks Additionally he includes case studies that highlight the real world impacts of social networks on individuals businesses and society as a whole Readers will discover practical solutions that offer pathways to creating a healthier digital environment enable recognition of misinformation and privacy issues more effectively as well as gain strategic insights that will help navigate and influence the future of social networks

Forest and Stream, 1891 Interactive Documentary Kathleen M. Ryan, David Staton, 2022-03-17 Interactive documentary is still an emerging field that eludes concise definitions or boundaries Grounded in practice based research this collection seeks to expand the sometimes exclusionary field giving voice to scholars and practitioners working outside the margins Editors Kathleen M Ryan and David Staton have curated a collection of chapters written by a global cohort of scholars to explore the ways that interactive documentary as a field of study reveals an even broader reach and definition of humanistic inquiry itself The contributors included here highlight how emerging digital technologies collaborative approaches to storytelling and conceptualizations of practice as research facilitate a deeper engagement with the humanistic inquiry at the center of documentary storytelling while at the same time providing agency and voice to groups typically excluded from positions of authority within documentary and practice based research as a whole This collection represents a key contribution to the important and vocal debates within the field about how to avoid replicating colonial practices and privileging This is an important book for practice based researchers as well as advanced level media and communication students studying documentary media practices interactive storytelling immersive media technologies and digital methodologies

Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter, Dirk Rupnow, Éva Kovács, Marianne Windsperger, 2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public

Noncoercive Threats to Academic, Political, and Economic Freedom Akeel Bilgrami, Jonathan R. Cole, 2025-12-02 States and institutions in both conventionally authoritarian and formally democratic societies overtly circumscribe freedom in any number of ways Yet there are also subtler forms by which authorities and cultural forces compromise the choices of individuals in ways that do not seem at first glance to be coercive This book brings together a distinguished set of scholars to examine covert constraints on academic political and economic freedom from a variety of angles developing surprising and timely new insights Ranging across philosophy economics law health science art and the media luminaries from different fields expose threats to freedom within avowedly liberal and democratic institutions and cultures Their incisive essays both analytical and historical emphasize how economic inequality academic orthodoxy media control racism and gender roles undermine the potential for human flourishing By considering such multifarious noncoercive threats they illuminate the vexed notion of freedom Lively and learned this book offers a provocative and urgent understanding of the often unacknowledged forces that restrict our choices Contributors include David Bromwich Eric Foner Robert Gooding Williams Michael Ignatieff Laura Kipnis Anya Schiffrin Joseph E Stiglitz and Geoffrey R Stone In an essay and an interview with the volume editors Noam Chomsky addresses the neoliberal assault on academic freedom
