Crafting the Customer Experience For People Not Like You Kelly McDonald, 2012-10-09 Deliver a better business experience for every kind of customer. A one-size-fits-all approach to customer service is no longer viable. Businesses competing on service need to understand and cater to customers' racial, ethnic, religious, generational, and geographic differences in order to meet or exceed customers' service expectations. Crafting the Customer Experience to People Not Like You shows how companies, brands, and products struggling to differentiate themselves in a sea of sameness can foster long-term loyalty and brand preference with exceptional and customized customer service. A detailed guide to core customer groups including women, the five generations (matures, Boomers, Gen X, Gen Y, and Gen Z), racial and ethnic segments such as Hispanics and African Americans, as well as those who are defined by key lifestyle and life stage attributes. Includes consumer insights that will help business leaders deliver a better business experience with every customer. You cannot control the economy, the stock market, or the costs of goods and labor. But you can control your organization's customer service. It's an empowering thought: Customer service is 100% in your control at all times, and it's more important than ever.

Customer Service Paul R. Timm, 2001 Annotation This practical, real-world book presents the skills essential for success in customer service. It brings together a wealth of the best information from professional books and academic textbooks and the author's broad consulting experience. Includes information on making optimum use of the Internet as a customer service professional. A clear, usable process is employed for developing the skills, attitudes, and thinking patterns needed to win customer satisfaction and loyalty. The process helps the reader develop a heightened awareness of challenges and opportunities, tools for dealing with unhappy customers, using the power of customer expectations, and creating loyalty, the ability to lead, expand, and empower the service process. Team 19!, 2003
