READING COMPREHENSION

STEM CAREERS

STEM stands for Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics. STEM careers are all about using those subjects to solve real-world problems and make cool things happen!

STEM careers cover a wide range of fields, from designing video games to leading solar panels. You don't always need a super advanced degree to get into STEM. Some careers, like coding and engineering, require a lot of schooling, while others, like graphic design and video game development, require creative thinking and problem-solving skills.

Whether you're a kid who loves building things and solving puzzles, or an adult who's looking for a new challenge, there's a STEM career out there for you. STEM jobs are exciting, rewarding, and can help make the world a better place. So, if you're interested in science, technology, engineering, or math, consider exploring the world of STEM careers!
