Can Alibaba Achieve Large-Scale Sustainable Success in the American E-Commerce Market? Hannah Müller,2019-07-10 Case Study from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics Operations Research grade 1 8 Reutlingen University language English abstract This paper is a case study about Alibaba entering the US e commerce market Can Alibaba make large scale sustainable success in the American e commerce market Or is the industry not attractive and the market saturated Alibaba provides technology infrastructure and marketing to help merchants brands and businesses to leverage the power of new technology to engage with their customers The Alibaba Group was founded in 1999 by Jack Ma and 17 other people Alibaba was originally founded as a B2B e commerce portal to connect Chinese manufacturers with overseas buyers Nowadays Alibaba ranks in the Top Ten companies in terms of market value Most of the credit goes to Ma himself because he utilized the first mover advantage and successfully planned entrepreneurial growth and corporate initiatives Looking back Ma has traveled more than 800 hours to dozens of countries to meet business leaders and state representatives to convince them of Alibaba s aim to let small and medium businesses SMEs from all parts of the world trade freely and securely on Alibaba s platforms The company s vision is to achieve 1 trillion in gross merchandise by 2020 and to serve two billion customers by 2036 To achieve this global operations are key and experts propose globalization is better done now than later Alibaba is currently experiencing high competitive pressure in China and will need to conquer new territories to continue on current trajectory Needless to say entry into the US market will not only be difficult but also require premium strategic decisions with little to no room for errors

The Global Digital Divides James B. Pick,Avijit Sarkar,2015-04-15 This book analyzes extensive data on the world s rapidly changing and growing access to use and geographies of information and communications technologies It studies not only the spatial differences in technology usage worldwide but also examines digital differences in the major world nations of China India the United States and Japan at the state and provincial levels At the global level factors such as education innovation judicial independence and investment are important to explaining differences in the adoption and use of technology. The country studies corroborate consistent determinants for technology usage for education, urban location, economic prosperity and infrastructure but also reveal unique determinants such as social capital in the United States and India, exports in China and working age population and patents in Japan. Spatial patterns are revealed that indicate clusters of high and low technology use for various nations around the world, the countries of Africa and for individual states/provinces within nations. Based on theory, novel findings and phenomena that have remained largely unreported, the book considers the future of the worldwide digital divide, the policy role of governments and the challenges of leadership. The Alibaba Group Yi Guo, 2016

By July of 2011, Yun Jack Ma had achieved his goal of creating one of the world's leading e-commerce companies. Ma founded the Alibaba Group and took advantage of growing internet usage in China to launch the leading B2B, C2C and B2C sites in the country and capture a huge market. Despite his success, Ma had a troubled relationship with Yahoo, the largest investor in the Alibaba Group. Ma's decision in January of 2011 to transfer Alipay, the Alibaba Group's online payment unit from the Alibaba Group to a company under his personal control was just making matters worse. When Ma founded Alibaba.com in 1999, he faced competition from a number of other Chinese B2B web portals. This case study discusses this topic. Internet Philanthropy in China Yidan Chen, 2021-08-27

This book is the work of Charles Chen Yidan, the Father of China's Internet Philanthropy. It is based on the long-term research and practices of Tencent Research Institute and the Tencent Foundation.
