

A promotional graphic for Starbucks' autumn drinks. The background is a light, neutral color. In the top right, a hand is shown sprinkling brown powder from a cinnamon stick onto a drink. The drink is in a clear glass cup with a white lid and is topped with a generous amount of whipped cream, which is also being dusted with the brown powder. Several autumn leaves in shades of orange, yellow, and brown are scattered around the drink and the text. The text is arranged in a vertical stack on the left side of the image.

Practicing Life Together Paul Gutacker, 2025-09-02 You don't have to go it alone after college nor should you. This book invites emerging adults to consider participating in a common rule that will guide their growth and cultivate genuine community. A rule of life is like a trellis. It's a standard offering guidance and encouraging growth in the right direction. It's a way of living intentionally, of committing to spiritual disciplines that are too important to leave up to our day-to-day whims. Dietrich Bonhoeffer discerned that Christian community is not an ideal which we must realize it is rather a reality created by God in Christ in which we may participate. Christians don't have to go it alone during the formative years after college; it's possible to practice life together. Gutacker introduces practices we can take up with others: communal prayer, weekly dinners, studying together, and Sabbath in the hope that these can become life-shaping habits.

Good Apples Susan Futrell, 2017-09 Apples are so ordinary and so ubiquitous that we often take them for granted. Yet it is surprisingly challenging to grow and sell such a common fruit. In fact, producing diverse, tasty apples for the market requires almost as much ingenuity and interdependence as building and maintaining a vibrant democracy. Understanding the geographic, ecological, and economic forces shaping the choices of apple growers, apple pickers, and apple buyers illuminates what's at stake in the way we organize our food system. Good Apples is for anyone who wants to go beyond the kitchen and backyard into the orchards, packing sheds, and cold storage rooms into the laboratories and experiment stations and into the warehouses, stockrooms, and marketing meetings to better understand how we, as citizens and eaters, can sustain the farms that provide food for our communities. Susan Futrell has spent years working in sustainable food distribution, including more than a decade with apple growers. She shows us why sustaining family orchards like family farms may be essential to the soul of our nation.
