to convey Ai Weiwei's dynamic works of art, his ideas and influential power to audience. Ai Weiwei's exhibition presents 21 sets of artwork spanning a period from the 1980s to 2011, encompassing a variety of forms such as installation and video and using a variety of materials such as ceramics, marble, antique utensils, and bicycles. It also includes a series of over 100 photographic works, 75 of which were taken by the artist during his stay in New York between 1983 and 1993, while the other 25 pieces were shot after he moved back to Beijing's East Village in 1993. The artist's most recent work, Forever Bicycles, created specially for this exhibition, is composed of 1,200 bicycles and installed in an exhibition space 10 meters high. Bicycles have long been the most common means of transport in China and, as such, are both familiar and intimate, but Ai Weiwei strips away the functionality of the object. He takes his own sensitivity and preferences and, through them, expands the idea of using finished objects. The use of 1,200 bikes and the large structure of the work were particular challenges in the construction of the piece. In addition, as the bikes are piled layer upon layer on top of each other, their wheel axles are transformed to form a labyrinthine-like space. Visitors can appreciate and reflect on the aesthetics of the abstract shapes from different angles at the same time, feeling first-hand the work's great energy and appeal.
