IIT, IIM, and the Illusion of Merit Pushp Sirohi,2026-02-12 In the polite air conditioned silence of a corporate conference room a promotion is being decided The candidate has perfect delivery client confidence and documented impact Everyone nods But then the real question is asked not about their future but about their past Where did they study And just like that merit leaves the room The Illusion of Merit exposes the uncomfortable truth of the Indian corporate ecosystem that talent doesn't lose opportunities because it is inadequate it loses because it is invisible to systems trained to recognize logos not leadership This book creates a piercing critique of the IIT IIM effect where educational brands act as career accelerators for some and invisible ceilings for others It dissects the lazy certainty of modern leadership where hiring the brand is a safety net and hiring the outsider is a risk Through sharp observation and familiar corporate scenarios this book gives a voice to the Reliable Backbones the professionals who train the leaders fix the mistakes and deliver the results yet remain stuck while the High Potentials glide past them This is not an attack on intelligence It is an attack on the belief that intelligence lives only in two places Read this if you believe that a career shouldn't be defined by an exam you took at seventeen Iit Foundation Explorer - Sceince - 7 Brain Mapping Academy,2009-01-01 Combipack Iit Foundation For Class - 6 Brain Mapping
