A Third Dictionary & Grammar of Láadan Suzette Haden Elgin, Jeanne Gomoll, Diane Martin, 2019-08-09 This book includes material from 1st Dictionary and Grammar 1988 and merges it with new vocabulary created for the Láadan website Elgin died in 2015 but interest persists in the language she created in 1982 embodied in her SF Native Tongue series Láadan is a feminist constructed language created by Elgin to test the Sapir-Whorf hypothesis that the language one speaks influences the way one thinks i.e. can a language expressing the views of women shape a culture Láadan includes morphemes that require speakers to own their own perceptions words that indicate for instance whether a statement comes from personal observation a trusted source or an unreliable third party Nowadays Elgin might argue that accusations of fake news would be impossible in Láadan This language also encodes speakers intentions into their sentences eliminating another form of micro aggression the rude comment that is passed off as just a joke All proceeds will go to the Science Fiction Poetry Association

Hildegard of Bingen's Unknown Language S. Higley, 2007-12-09 The Lingua Ignota brought forth by the twelfth century German nun Hildegard of Bingen provides 1012 neologisms for praise of Church and new expression of the things of her world Noting her visionary metaphors her music and various medieval linguistic philosophies Higley examines how the Unknown Language makes arid signifiers green again This text however is too often seen in too narrow a context glossolalia angelic language secret code Higley provides an edition and English translation of its glosses in the Riesencodex with assistance from the Berlin MS but also places it within a history of imaginary language making from medieval times to the most contemporary projects in efforts to uncover this woman's bold involvement in an intellectual and creative endeavor that spans centuries

The Cambridge History of the English Language Richard M. Hogg, Norman Francis Blake, Suzanne Romaine, Roger Lass, R. W. previous typologies into a new 5 part reading model comprising unique analytical approaches tailored to science fiction's specific discourse and style exploring the relationship between glossopoesis world building storytelling interpretation and rhetoric both in prose and paratexts
