Practising Phonics

at Home and Out and About

If your child is learning phonics at school, you might want to support them at home but feel unsure of what to do.

The right help can boost your child's confidence in the right moments to help them feel sure that all the words they find will be read to them and you will be able to read them with them. The best way to do this is to provide a supportive environment. Offer lots of encouragement for any progress, however small, and be patient with any setbacks. Remember, the best way to help is to be a good listener and to be a good reader.

If you can't see your child reading, how can you help? The best way to do this is to provide a supportive environment. Offer lots of encouragement for any progress, however small, and be patient with any setbacks. Remember, the best way to help is to be a good listener and to be a good reader.
