

Performance and Development Review (PDR) Example Forms

For the purposes of the training sessions, some example forms have been developed. These forms are included to demonstrate that there is flexibility in the way the form is used to summarise the discussions in the PDR meetings, particularly Section A, which reviews the outcomes from the previous year.

The important thing to remember as a reviewer is that you should discuss both what was expected of the reviewee and how well they achieved those things and how they applied their skills, knowledge and behaviour at work (the competencies).

The three examples that were developed are:

1. Jo Bloggs, Administrative Assistant

In Section A, three key tasks from the job description have been highlighted plus two key goals from the previous PDR. These are discussed on the right.

In Section B, the summary comments briefly cover all the competency areas.

2. Liam Bloggs, Senior Laboratory Technician

In Section A, the reviewer has looked at each competency area and identified some key tasks from the job description that are relevant to each competency.

3. Mary Bloggs, Department Administrator

In Section A, the key outcomes from job description have been used to structure Section A.

Reviewers may find it helpful to structure Section A of the form in other ways, for example:

- The eleven questions in the form 'Preparing for the Performance and Development Review'
- The objectives

Police Misconduct, Complaints, and Public Regulation John Beggs, Hugh Davies, 2009-07-09 Police Misconduct Complaints and Public Regulation covers the highly sensitive topic of who polices the police. It provides comprehensive coverage of the law and procedure relating to the regulation of the police, setting out comprehensive guidance on practice at complaints and misconduct hearings, as well as detailed analysis of the powers of the IPCC and of its statutory guidance. It includes dedicated chapters on related sets of proceedings, notably the complaints and discipline process from recording the complaint through to the Police Appeals Tribunal, specific criminal offences, misconduct in public office, manslaughter, inquest proceedings, public inquiries, and judicial review. The content reflects the substantial developments in the law and practice in these inter-related proceedings since the implementation of the Police Reform Act 2002 in April 2004, as well as the radical reforms introduced by the Police Conduct Regulations 2008. The authors bring together in a detailed and practical narrative the relevant statutory powers, secondary legislation, statutory guidance, and increasing body of High Court jurisprudence. They include user-friendly diagrams and process maps to illustrate and explain the narrative and legislation. Appendices include regulations and associated Home Office Guidance under the 2004 and 2008 performance and misconduct regimes, and the new 2008 PAT Rules. Written by two barristers with extensive experience representing and advising police forces and officers, this book is an essential text for solicitors and barristers involved in police misconduct issues. An Introduction to

Human Resource Management Nick Wilton, 2022-01-19 Reflecting the global nature of the workplace, this is a concise introduction to the world of human resource management that goes beyond a prescriptive 'how to' approach and prepares you for the issues and dilemmas you may face in your HR career. Includes new discussions on the impact of Black Lives Matter on HR, the effect of Covid 19 on recruitment and on the mental health of employees, and post-Brexit points-based immigration. Boxed features including Ethical Insights, Research Insights, and HRM in Practice highlight contemporary practices, critical perspectives, and discussions and debates related to each chapter. Now features a running case study where in each chapter you can apply what you've learnt to solve a challenge faced by the HR Manager of a hotel. Illustrated with real-world case studies and examples from a cross-section of industries such as Netflix, Nike, and Just Eat. Comprehensive online resources including author videos, over 25 additional case studies, access to full journal articles, and self-test quizzes. Suitable for anyone studying HRM as part of an undergraduate or postgraduate degree, or on a specialist program of study. People and Organisational Development
