Evaluation Management in South Africa and Africa Fanie Cloete, Babette Rabie, Christo De Coning, 2014-12-01 This blind peer reviewed book systematically records analyses and assesses for the first time in a single volume the implications of the global development and management of professional evaluation for the African continent The book deals with the most strategic contemporary evaluation themes Each of these themes contains discussions of theoretical issues illustrated with one or more short case studies while selected longer case studies and other relevant documentation are also taken up in annexures at the end of the book The book therefore comprises a guide to best M E practices for purposes of systematic policy programme and project evaluations It is suitable for both professional M E institutionalisation and capacity building projects as well as for evaluation information dissemination and education at different levels in the public private and voluntary sectors in society especially in a developmental context

Democratic Evaluation and Democracy Donna Podems, 2017-02-23 This book explores democratic evaluation's role in strengthening social justice focusing on its application in South Africa It provides insights into national and local government and civil society experiences with evaluation The book concludes with a teaching case and guiding questions for reflection and learning

AU, NEPAD and the APRM Charles Manga Fombad, Zein Kebonang, 2006 The African Union AU and The New Partnership for Africa's Development NEPAD reflect a hitherto unprecedented collective political effort by African governments to address issues of democracy and good governance on a continental scale The visible commitments are reflected in the adoption of a variety of programmatic blueprints and a series of newly created or recently strengthened institutions Most visibly since the integration of NEPAD into the AU the African Peer Review Mechanism APRM has started a process to address some of the obstacles on the basis of a voluntary assessment of African government policies The contributions to this publication trace the recent developments from a policy perspective and explore the scope and limit of the current democratization efforts They present an interim prognosis on the extent to which the visible new dynamics actually give realistic hope for achieving sustainable changes in terms of the declared goals This publication is useful for political scientists policymakers and other professionals dealing with Africa in development assistance
