A 52-Hertz Whale Bill Sommer, Natalie Haney Tilghman, 2015-09-01 It appears to be the only individual emitting a call at this frequency and hence has been described as the world's loneliest whale Wikipedia So here's how it all starts James a high school freshman is worried that the young humpback whale he tracks online has separated from its pod So naturally he emails Darren the twentysomething would be filmmaker who volunteered in James's special education program back in middle school Of course Darren is useless on the subject of whales but he's got nothing but time given that the only girl he could ever love dumped him And fetching lattes for his boss has him close to walking out on his movie dream and boomeranging right back to his childhood bedroom So why not reply to a random email from Whale Boy Predictably this thread of emails leads to a lot of bizarre stuff including a yeti suit drug smuggling widows a major documentary filmmaking opportunity first love a graveyard damaged echolocation estranged siblings restraining orders choke holds emergency dentistry and then maybe ends with something like understanding See it turns out that the thing that binds people together most is their fear that nothing binds them together at all

If You Find This Letter Hannah Brencher, 2015-03-10 A heartwarming memoir of love and faith from Hannah Brencher founder of The World Needs More Love Letters who has dedicated her life to showing total strangers that they are not alone in the world Fresh out of college Hannah Brencher moved to New York ready to change the world Instead she found a city full of people who knew where they were going and what they were doing and didn't have time for a girl still trying to figure it all out Lonely and depressed she noticed a woman who looked like she felt the same way on the subway Hannah did something strange she wrote the woman a letter She folded it scribbled If you find this letter it's for you on the front and left it behind When she realized that it made her feel better she started writing and leaving love notes all over the city in doctor's offices in coat pockets in library books in bathroom stalls Feeling crushed within a culture that only felt like connecting on a screen she poured her heart out to complete strangers She found solace in the idea that her words might brighten someone's day Hannah's project took on a life of its own when she made an offer on her blog She would handwrite a note and mail it to anyone who wanted one Overnight her inbox exploded with requests from people all over the world Nearly 400 handwritten letters later she started the website The World Needs More Love Letters which quickly grew There is something about receiving a handwritten note that is so powerful in today's digital era If You Find This Letter chronicles Hannah's attempts to bring more love into the world and shows how she rediscovered her faith through the movement she started
