

COMPARISON OF STANDARD REPAYMENT PLANS

REPAYMENT PLAN	PAYMENT	HOW LONG YOU'LL PAY	IDEAL FOR
Standard Repayment Plan	Your monthly payment will be a fixed amount based on the amount you need to pay each month in order to have your loan paid off in 10 years.	Discharged after 10 years	Those with a high starting salary right out of college.
Graduated Repayment Plan	Increases every 2 years.	Discharged after 10 years	Those who want a low monthly payment right out of college, and expect to make more money later on.
Extended Repayment Plan	10 or 15 percent of discretionary income. Changes with income.	Discharged after 25 years	Those who want the freedom to choose between fixed and graduated payments.
Extended Graduated Repayment Plan	Increases every 2 years. If you choose a fixed version, your payments will be split evenly over the course of 25 years.	Discharged after 25 years	Those who want a low monthly payment right out of college and the choice between fixed and graduated payments.

Tax, Social Policy and Gender Miranda Stewart, 2017-11-08 Gender inequality is profoundly unjust and in clear contradiction to the philosophy of the fair go In spite of some action by recent governments Australia has fallen behind in policy and outcomes even as the G20 group of nations the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development and the International Monetary Fund are paying renewed attention to gender inequality Tax Social Policy and Gender presents new research on entrenched gender inequality in a comparative framework of human rights and fiscal sustainability Ground breaking empirical studies examine unequal returns to education for women and men decision making about child care by fathers and mothers the history and gendered effects of the income tax and family payments and women in the top 1 per cent Contributors demonstrate how Australia s tax social security child care parental leave education work and retirement income policies intersect to compound gender inequality Tax Social Policy and Gender calls for a rethinking of equality and efficiency in tax and social policy and provides new policy solutions It offers a pathway to achieve gender mainstreaming for women s economic security and the wellbeing of all Australians

Crown and Sword Cameron Moore, 2017-11-09 The Australian Defence Force together with military forces from a number of western democracies have for some years been seeking out and killing Islamic militants in Iraq Syria and Afghanistan detaining asylum seekers for periods at sea or running the judicial systems of failed states It has also been ready to conduct internal security operations at home The domestic legal authority cited for this is often the poorly understood concept of executive power which is power that derives from executive and not parliamentary authority In an age of legality where parliamentary statutes govern action by public officials in the finest detail it is striking that these extreme exercises of the use of force often rely upon an elusive legal basis This book seeks to find the limits to the exercise of this extraordinary power
