Re: Fundraising Officer #A22714

I wish to apply for the post of Fundraising Officer which I saw advertised on the Oxford University Careers Service website. I am in my final year at Oxford University, studying Mathematics. I have a long-standing interest in charity work and believe that I have the qualities and experience required to be a successful fundraiser.

My enthusiasm for pursuing a career in this area stems from my interest in working with disadvantaged young people, and my desire to make full use of my skills in motivating people to make a difference. OxiAID has established its credentials working in some of the most challenging areas of social aid and the government funding recently awarded to the organization is recognition of the success of its philosophy. After my experiences with Jacari, I am attracted by the opportunity to help other young people and to develop my fundraising skills in such an environment.

Motivating people to work with me towards a common, worthwhile goal is something that I find hugely enjoyable and rewarding. As Marketing and Publicity Officer for the College Ball last year I was extremely pleased that we had more applicants for tickets than ever before. I believe that the marketing pack that I put together for potential sponsors played its part in attracting record levels of sponsorship.

One of the most rewarding aspects of being at Oxford has been the work I have done with Jacari. During my time on the committee the number of volunteers involved in the project has increased by 50% and I have enjoyed both the challenge of raising the profile of the society and my work with young people themselves.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss my application with you and look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
Your name

Rereading Musicians and Their Audiences Tom Attah,Kirsty Fairclough,Christian Lloyd,2025-06-12 Using a radical and inclusive definition of the genre this collection explores musicians autobiographies as articulated in print on stage and through various expressive media as a dynamic factor in contemporary culture Popular musicians autobiographies are one of the most important ways that stars create negotiate and perpetuate the realities and myths of their lived experiences for fans Autobiographical creations such as Bruce Springsteen s book Born to Run Kendrick Lamar s lyrics ABBA s virtual Voyage show and the reimaginings of Lennon and McCartney s childhood homes have been both critically acclaimed and lucrative whilst delivering for many fans an apparent insider s understanding of musicians whose work they are invested in Yet such narratives have many other functions beyond thrilling their consumers with a sense of intimacy The pop music autobiographies discussed here variously attempt to rewrite social history to redress gender or racial stereotypes to question received models of fame to validate new genres and scenes to explore complex subjectivities to justify or atone for transgressive behaviour and to critique the music industry
