Literature, Modernity, and the Practice of Resistance Margaret Hillenbrand,2007-03-31 This book is a cross cultural interdisciplinary study which compares responses to modernity in the literary cultures of Japan and Taiwan 1960 1990 Moving beyond the East West framework that has traditionally dominated comparative enquiry the volume sets out to explore contemporary East Asian literature on its own terms As such it belongs to the newly emerging area of inter Asian cultural studies but is the first full length monograph to explore this field through the prism of literature The book combines close readings of paradigmatic texts with in depth analysis of the historical social and ideological contexts in which these works are situated and explores the form and function of literary practice within the miracle societies of industrialized East Asia
