Collaborating Barbara Gray, 1989-06-12 Veteran mediator Barbara Gray presents an innovative approach to successfully mediating multi party disputes A superb resource for managers public officials and others working to solve complex problems such as labor disputes disposal of toxic wastes racial integration and the use of biotechnology Collaborating Barbara Gray, 1999 The Challenges of Collaboration in Environmental Governance Richard D. Margerum, Cathy J.

Robinson, 2016-09-28 Collaborative approaches to governance are being used to address some of the most difficult environmental issues across the world but there is limited focus on the challenges of practice Leading scholars from the United States Europe and Australia explore the theory and practice in a range of contexts highlighting the lessons from practice the potential limitations of collaboration and the potential strategies for addressing these challenges

Communication and Conflict Transformation through Local, Regional, and Global Engagement Peter M. Kellett, Thomas G. Matyók, 2016-12-13 Central to a transformational approach to conflict is the idea that conflicts must be viewed as embedded within broader relational patterns and social and discursive structures and must be addressed as such This implies the need for systemic change at generative levels in order to create genuine transformation at the level of particular conflicts Central also to this book is the idea that the origins of transformation can be momentary or situational small scale or micro level as well as bigger and more systemic or macro level Micro level changes involve shifts and meaningful changes in communication and related patterns that are created in communication between people Such transformative changes can radiate out into more systemic levels and systemic transformative changes can radiate inwards to more micro levels This book engages this transformative framework Within this framework this book pulls together current work that epitomizes and highlights the contribution of communication scholarship and communication centered approaches to conflict transformation in local community regional environmental and global conflicts in various parts of the world The resulting volume presents an engaging mix of scholarly chapters think pieces and experiences from the field of practice The book embraces a wide variety of theoretical and methodological approaches as well as transformative techniques and processes including narrative dialogic critical cultural linguistic conversation analytic discourse analytic and rhetorical This book makes a valuable contribution to the ongoing dialogue across and between disciplines and people on how to transform conflicts creatively sustainably and ethically Reinventing Civil Society: The Emerging Role of Faith-Based
