Kahlil Joseph and the Audiovisual Atlantic Joe Jackson,2024-07-11 It s wonderful to read a book that ranges across music cinema music video art and literature with such ease One of the beautiful things about this book is that it is really attentive to relationships and this is particularly clear when talking about Kahlil Joseph s creative mentors and comrades including Arthur Jafa and Terrence Malick Tsitsi Ella Jaji Helen S Bevington Associate Professor of Modern Poetry Associate Professor of African African American Studies Duke University USA Kahlil Joseph has collaborated with musicians FKA twigs Flying Lotus Sampha and Shabazz Palaces among many others He has directed numerous films music videos and advertisements across Africa America and Europe The award winning filmmaker s disruptive style which frequently merges visual representations of transcontinental experiences with the countercultural energies of Afrodiasporic music challenges the Eurocentric biases underpinning Western media At the same time his works generate various contradictions and tensions because they are themselves products situated within an economic framework of neoliberal capitalism at once offering alternative ways of being while simultaneously participating in and thereby sustaining the social structures that they otherwise seek to subvert and dismantle This is the first book length study of Kahlil Joseph s work Distinguishing the artist s personal and professional personas it traces Joseph s career trajectory and artistic output emphasizing how the director s construction of a multifaceted filmmaking persona operates in tandem with his artworks to challenge fixed unidimensional or stable notions of identity Through biographical study and deep examinations of the director s respective transmedia artworks this book draws from various discussions shaped by Paul Gilroy s ground breaking text The Black Atlantic 1993 By applying The Black Atlantic s disruptive audiocentric ideas to contemporary digital media forms generated by Kahlil Joseph and his peers alike this book challenges the latent Eurocentricity on which dominant theorizations of modernity as well as the overlapping fields of Film Media and Screen Studies are grounded In turn it offers an alternative framework for negotiating the paradoxes contradictions and transnational flows of our media saturated present namely the Audiovisual Atlantic This book has been selected as runner up for Best First Monograph 2025 by BAFTSS British Association of Film Television and Screen Studies

Cinema and Social Change in Germany and Austria Gabriele Mueller,James M. Skidmore,2012-09-01 During the last decade contemporary German and Austrian cinema has grappled with new social and economic realities The cinema of consensus a term coined to describe the popular and commercially oriented filmmaking of the 1990s has given way to a more heterogeneous and critical cinema culture Making the greatest artistic impact since the 1970s contemporary cinema is responding to questions of globalization and the effects of societal and economic change on the individual This book explores this trend by investigating different thematic and aesthetic strategies and alternative methods of film production and distribution Functioning both as a product and as an agent of globalizing processes this new cinema mediates and influences important political and social debates The contributors illuminate these processes through their analyses of cinema's intervention in discourses on such concepts as national cinema the effects of globalization on social mobility and the emergence of a global culture The essays illustrate the variety and inventiveness of contemporary Austrian and German filmmaking and highlight the complicated interdependencies between global developments and local specificities They confirm a broader trend toward a more complex critical and formally diverse cinematic scene This book offers insights into the strategies employed by German and Austrian filmmakers to position themselves between the commercial pressures of the film industry and the desire to mediate or even attempt to affect social change It will be of interest to scholars in film studies cultural studies and European studies

Remapping

Brazilian Film Culture in the Twenty-First Century Stephanie Dennison,2019-10-25 Remapping Brazilian Film Culture makes a significant contribution not only to debates about Brazilian national cinema but more generally about the development of world cinema in the twenty first century This book charts the key features of Brazilian film culture of the first two decades of the twenty first century including the latest cultural debates within Brazil on film funding and distribution practices the impact of diversity politics on the Brazilian film industry the reception and circulation of Brazilian films on the international film festival circuit and the impact on cultural production of the sharp change in political direction at national level experienced post 2016 The principle of remapping here is based on a need to move on from potentially limiting concepts such as the national which can serve to unduly ghettoise a cinema film industry and audience The book argues that Brazilian film culture should be read as being part of a globally articulated film culture whose internal workings are necessarily distinctive and thus deserving of world cinema scholars attention A blend of industry studies audience reception and cultural studies Remapping Brazilian Film Culture is a dynamic volume for students and researchers in film studies particularly Brazilian Latin American and world cinema Honorary Mention Best Book in Humanities for the LASA Brazil Prize 2021
