Watching her is Robbie Turner, her childhood friend who like Cecilia has recently come down from Cambridge. By the end of that day the lives of all three will have been changed forever. Atonement was shortlisted for the Booker Prize. A beautiful and majestic fictional panoramic John Updike. The best thing he has ever written. Observer Atonement Ian McEwan, 2003-02.

For use in schools and libraries only. Swift's first novel since his Booker prize winning Last Orders is a luminous and gripping tale of love, murder and redemption involving George Webb, a divorced ex-policeman turned private investigator. Ian McEwan Irena Książopolska, 2024-04-30. This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan: The Cement Garden, The Comfort of Strangers, The Child in Time, The Innocent, Black Dogs, Atonement, On Chesil Beach, introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers. This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading, an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text, critical discussion, authorial comments and the context of the composition. Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts, indicating that McEwan's works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds, examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby. All the chapters attend to submerged, repressed or deliberately masked voices. The Cement Garden is seen as a multi-layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers. The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes. The Child in Time is read as Stephen's book written for his dead daughter. The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria's role as a spy. In Black Dogs, the over-exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma. In the analysis of Atonement, Briony's claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent. Finally, examining On Chesil Beach, both characters' voices are reconstructed in search of the superior narrative power which in the end is seen to be elusive as the text seeks to undermine the hierarchy of voices.

Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll,2007 Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum Ian McEwan Sebastian Groes,2013-09-12 With a new chapter on Solar this is an up to date guide to critical writing on Ian McEwan including an interview with the author Ian McEwan's Atonement & Saturday Christina Byrnes,2006-01-01 Nutshell Ian McEwan,2016-09-13 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A suspenseful dazzlingly clever and gravely profound The Washington Post novel that brilliantly recasts Shakespeare and lends new weight to the age old question of Hamlet s hesitation from the Booker Prize winner and bestselling author of Atonement Trudy has been unfaithful to her husband John What s more she has kicked him out of their marital home a valuable old London town house and in his place is his own brother the profoundly banal Claude The illicit couple have hatched a scheme to rid themselves of her inconvenient husband forever But there is a witness to their plot the inquisitive nine month old resident of Trudy s womb As Trudy s unborn son listens bound within her body to his mother and his uncle s murderous plans he gives us a truly new perspective on our world seen from the confines of his Guilt in Ian McEwan's "Atonement" and Joe Wright's film adaptation Carmen Odimba,2015-04-30 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Cultural Studies Basics and Definitions grade 3 0 Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz Department of British Irish Studies Translation Studies course Seminar Transferring Translating Media Novels to Film Ian McEwan s Atonement language English abstract Atonement the novel by Ian McEwan published in 2001 is qualified by many critics as a wartime love story It is an interpretation that suits the glamorous criteria needed by the public and provided by the media nowadays This interpretation however solely focuses on the characters of Cecilia and Robbie and forgets the important part that Briony or her writing process play in the novel and Joe Wright s film A complete reading of Atonement should include a study of the title and its implications in the story We will start by analyzing the meaning of the word atonement The choice of this title has a special significance for the whole novel and should lead us readers and spectators to understand its message to know whether the spirit of the novel has been respected by the film maker is a question to which we will also answer briefly The tragic event that happened in Part One of the novel could never have taken place in a more opened social environment With other codifications more courage and less things left unsaid the story would have been different We will examine some of the taboos that played an important role in the shaping of Atonement s characters The notion of guilt is very present in the novel thus it will be in relation to atonement the central focus of this paper We will consider the main characters i e Briony Robbie Cecilia Lola and Paul Marshall and try to evaluate the degree to which each one of them is guilty feels guilty and is willing to atone for his sins The last part of the paper will be essentially dedicated to the film to Joe Wright s interpretation of the
