

Molli's Christmas

Molli woke up this morning and was very excited for Christmas. Christmas was her favorite holiday because everyone she loved opening presents from Santa. She ran downstairs to greet everyone.

Every year, Molli and her family would bake cookies, build gingerbread houses, sing songs and decorate the Christmas tree together. Molli's grandmother loved to knit sweaters during the holidays. She knitted a red turtle neck sweater for Molli. It felt so soft, warm and cozy.

Molli went to find her father, but her mother said that he is still in the forest finding wood for the fire place. She said, "We need to wait for him to come back." Molli couldn't wait to open presents and explained that she wrote letters to Santa on Thanksgiving day to make sure he will give her presents first.

After watching the Christmas parade on the television, Molli's father walked in and everyone helped him bring the wood inside. Molli picked up her present for her mother and said, "Merry Christmas!"
