The Raging 2020s Alec Ross,2021-09-14 In the face of unprecedented global change New York Times bestselling author Alec Ross proposes a new social contract to restore the balance of power between government citizens and business in The Raging 2020s For 150 years there has been a contract Companies hold the power to shape our daily lives The state holds the power to make them fall in line And the people hold the power to choose their leaders But now this balance has shaken loose As the market consolidates the lines between big business and the halls of Congress have become razor thin Private companies have become as powerful as countries As Walter Isaacson said about Alec Ross s first book The Industries of the Future The future is already hitting us and Ross shows how it can be exciting rather than frightening Through interviews with the world s most influential thinkers and stories of corporate activism and malfeasance government failure and renewal and innovative economic and political models Ross proposes a new social contract one that resets the equilibrium between corporations the governing and the governed

The Political Philosophy of AI Mark Coeckelbergh,2022-01-31 Political issues people care about such as racism climate change and democracy take on new urgency and meaning in the light of technological developments such as AI How can we talk about the politics of AI while moving beyond mere warnings and easy accusations This is the first accessible introduction to the political challenges related to AI Using political philosophy as a unique lens through which to explore key debates in the area the book shows how various political issues are already impacted by emerging AI technologies from justice and discrimination to democracy and surveillance Revealing the inherently political nature of technology it offers a rich conceptual toolbox that can guide efforts to deal with the challenges raised by what turns out to be not only artificial intelligence but also artificial power This timely and original book will appeal to students and scholars in philosophy of technology and political philosophy as well as tech developers innovation leaders policy makers and anyone interested in the impact of technology on society
