Justice of the Peace and Local Government Review, 1858      Human Rights in the UK and the Influence of Foreign Jurisprudence Hélène Tyrrell, 2018-09-20 Longlisted for the 2022 Inner Temple Main Book Prize Human Rights in the UK and the Influence of Foreign Jurisprudence represents the first major empirical study of the use of foreign jurisprudence at the UK Supreme Court This book focuses on the patterns of use and non use of rulings from foreign domestic courts in human rights cases before the UK Supreme Court Results are drawn from quantitative and qualitative research presenting data from the first eight years of Supreme Court activity The evidence includes interviews with active and former members of the senior judiciary as well as a focus group including some of the Supreme Court Judicial Assistants It is argued that foreign jurisprudence is more intimately woven into the fabric of judicial reasoning and serves a wider range of functions than the term persuasive authority might imply Foreign jurisprudence is used mainly as a heuristic device providing judges with a fresh analytical lens Foreign jurisprudence is also important when interpreting a common legislative scheme supporting dialogue between the Supreme Court and supranational courts such as the European Court of Human Rights The perspectives offered by foreign jurisprudence can also support a stronger conception of domestic human rights In these ways this book addresses a broader political question about the source of human rights in the UK      Transforming the Police

Terror? Marianne Wade,Almir Maljevic,2009-11-05 Marianne Wade and Almir Maljevi Although the worries about terrorism paled in comparison to the economic crisis as a topic during the last US election one can find plenty of grounds to assume that they remain issue number one in the minds of politicians in Europe As the German houses of Parliament prepare to call in the mediation committee in the discussion of legislation which would provide the Federal Police thus far mandated purely with the post facto investigation of crime with powers to act to prevent acts of terrorism Spain s struggle with ETA and the British Government licks its wounds after a resounding defeat of its latest anti terrorist proposals by the House of Lords one cannot but wonder whether post 9 11 the Europeans are not even more concerned with terrorism than their US counterparts A look at media reports legislative and judicial activities in either Britain or Germany clearly underlines that those two countries are deeply embroiled in anti terrorist activity Can it be that Europe is embroiled in the War on Terror constantly providing for new arms in this conflict Or is it a refusal to participate in the War on Terror that fuels a constant need for Parliaments to grapple with the subject begrudgingly conceding one increasingly draconian measure after the other The question as to where Europe stands in the War on Terror is a fascinating one but one which is difficult to answer Forces
