Contrastive Analysis English Arabic:

A Contrastive Analysis of the Use of Verb Forms in English and Arabic Nayef Kharma,1983      Contrastive Analysis of Arabic and English Verbs in Tense Mohamed K. Al-Aswad,1984      A Contrastive Analysis of the Arabic and English Phonological Systems Meliani Rouag,1988      Translating Irony between English and Arabic Raymond Chakhachiro,2019-01-14 This book challenges entrenched literary views that promote the impracticality of linguistic stylistic and functional approaches to the analysis and translation of irony It considers these scientific fields of enquiry as the building blocks on which ironic devices in English and Arabic are grounded and according to which the appropriateness of the methods of translation in the literature is assessed in a quest to pin down an interactive model for the interpretation and translation of irony The book ventures into contrastive linguistic and stylistic analyses of irony in Arabic and English from literary linguistic and discourse perspectives It sheds light on the interpretation and the linguistic realisation of irony in Arabic and English through an interdisciplinary approach and consequently identifies similarities and discrepancies in the form and function of ironic devices between these languages As such it will appeal to professional translators instructors and students of translation as well as language learners language teachers and researchers in cross cultural and inter pragmatic disciplines      Exploring Lexical Inaccuracy in Arabic-English Translation Yasir Alenazi,2022-10-31 This book presents a case study on lexical error analysis in the translation products of Arab English majors at the university level with important implications for Arabic speaking countries It provides detailed analyses and explanations of the main lexical areas that cause specific difficulties for these students while also identifying their potential sources The respective chapters discuss several areas related to the context of the research the field of SLA error analysis language transfer error taxonomies language learning language teaching and translation training The analyses and findings presented here contribute to the linguistic field by developing a comprehensive list of lexical error categories based on form content and origin of influence regarding translation products In addition the book sheds light on the pedagogical aspects contributing to the enhancement of ESL EFL teaching in the Arab context as well as other contexts where English is taught as a foreign language The book will help educators and curriculum writers in designing materials and language researchers as a groundwork for their studies of L2 learners written products      CONTRASTIVE ANALYSIS OF ARABIC AND ENGLISH VERBS IN TENSE, ASPECT, AND STRUCTURE. Mohamed Kaleefa Al-Aswad,1983 Arabic uses only one      Contrastive analysis and translation : Arabic, Italian, English Maria Rosaria D'Acierno,2011      Errors in English Pronunciation among Arabic Speakers Mohamed Fathy Khalifa,2020-01-17 This book is a contrastive analysis of Arabs errors in English pronunciation regarding segmentals consonants consonant clusters and vowels and suprasegmentals main word stress It also explains the main interlingual reasons behind these errors and presents some teaching suggestions for surmounting them The findings show that the subjects substitute their own Arabic sounds for unfamiliar English ones producing incorrect English sounds In addition they apply Arabic main word stress rules instead of English ones producing incorrect English stress patterns The book also shows that English sounds and stress patterns that are both different and more marked than corresponding Arabic ones caused learning difficulties for the subjects Interlanguage Error Analysis: an Appropriate and Effective Pedagogy for Efl Learners in the Arab World Muhammad Khan Abdul Malik, 2020-05-31 First of all the author wants to make it crystal clear that the present work is of a great benefit both for the English and Arab learners of the target language either Arabic or English This edition of the book pinpoints previous researchers findings regarding English and Arabic phonological morphological and syntactic similarities and differences and how all these differences result in mistakes and errors by the Arab learners of English in their learning process These mistakes or errors are unconsciously or involuntarily made by Arab learners of English due to the differences between the system and sub systems of the two languages The present attempt is the result of my realization as an English language teacher as to how a teacher can minimize students difficulties in learning of English and maximize their knowledge skills and competency of English as a foreign or second language This is the first edition The work is pedagogically oriented and primarily intended to make teaching learning of English as a foreign second language a bit easy especially for the first year university students of English language in the Arab world Gulf area such as KSA UAE Kuwait and the Middle East Area such as Jordan Syria Lebanon and so on The focus is on phonetic and morpho syntactic variations in Arabic and English languages This area of research becomes more interesting through the assumptions i information about the differences and similarities between Arabic and English language is to be supplied at an early stage since this facilitates the students learning task ii the differences are to be presented in pedagogically suitable format iii it is useful to separate and present phonetics morphological and syntactic categories as they function in suitable contexts and not merely abstract notions iv before students may tackle contrastive analysis they should have basic knowledge of Arabic and English languages similarities and differences and v pre modification and post modification of lexical and syntactic structures are to be explained appropriately Contrastive Analysis of Arabic and English Verbs in Tense, Aspect, and Structure Mohamed Kaleefa Al-Aswad, 1986 A descriptive contrastive analysis of English and Arabic verbs Othman Mohamed Hadeli, 1971 Contrastive Syntax Moha Ennaji, 1985 This book aims at contrasting the structure of the Complex Sentence namely relative clauses complement clauses and coordinate sentences in English Moroccan Arabic and Berber The basic approach underlying the contrastive analysis conducted in this book is approximately the Standard Transformational approach The book itself falls into four chapters For ease of exposition the introductory chapter includes a brief sociolinguistic survey of the three languages and a brief outline of their most salient different syntactic features Chapter two discusses in detail the relative clause the status of the relative forms and their morphosyntax Chapter three concerns itself with complement clauses and how the various structures involved contrast in these languages The purpose of the fourth chapter is to give a sketchy overview of the syntax of joined structures in English Moroccan Arabic and Berber and discuss in detail the main characteristics of coordination in each language Particular attention is drawn to the semantic processes at work Author s website The Nuts and Bolts of Arabic-English Translation Ali Almanna,2019-01-29 This book is aimed primarily at undergraduate and postgraduate students of translation and contrastive linguistics across the world as well as their instructors It does not confine itself to showing the differences between Arabic and English in terms of traditional grammar alone but gently extends to the discussion of such issues as functional grammar syntax cohesion semantics pragmatics cognitive linguistics stylistics text typology translation procedures and to a certain degree translation theories It will serve to develop a professional translation competence in all essential areas in students and trainees by providing a suitably wide range of bidirectional practice materials for them and their teachers Such competence will be developed from the basis of a contrastive study of Arabic and English and will embrace not just contrasting grammar but also such matters as awareness of collocations stylistics and cohesive devices and the identification of text types Contrastive Analysis of Arabic and English Verbs in Tense, Aspect, and Structure ,1987 Contrastive Analysis of Arabic and English Passive Structures Ahmed Mohamed Abunowara,1983 Contrastive Analysis of Arabic and English Verbs in Tense, Aspect and Structure Mohammed Kaleefa Al-Aswad,1986 Arab Students' Writing in English at the College Level Ruwaida Abu Rass,2024-12-02 This book contains detailed theoretical information as well as practical strategies techniques and pedagogical tips It also includes analysis to the problems and challenges that face ESL EFL students in general and Arab learners in specific The book could be of interest not only to EFL researchers in academic writing writing instructors EFL educators at the college level policymakers and undergraduate and graduate students but also for any second or foreign language teachers Contrastive Analysis of Meaning Relationships and Linking Devices in English and Arabic Shawqi Y.
