Seventeen year old Harper Jamison does not believe in romance Years of working at Beneath the Veil her single mother s bridal boutique have shown Harper the reality of love and weddings and a summer fling that ended badly only added to her cynicism But this doesn t stop her from sneaking glances at Felix the cute boy from school who works out at the gym across the street even if she has no plans of ever asking him out Her best friend Theo on the other hand is a complete romantic who keeps getting his heart broken by girls who don t reciprocate the intensity of his feelings When Harper offers to teach Theo how to date without becoming too invested Theo agrees on the condition that Harper leads by example She accepts the challenge and approaches Felix who turns out to be as attracted to Harper as she is to him She soon realizes that maintaining indifference might be more difficult than anticipated especially if the romance that she s been rejecting might be something she wants after all despite her fear of breaking up After the Fall of Heaven Kioumars Sahebpanah,2022-01-14

Throughout life you stand at many crossroads where you have to make a choice you have to go left or right For the most part one convinces oneself that the choices one makes and the decisions one makes are made on the basis of rational and sensible considerations but often it is our emotions that ultimately make the difference Other times it is some external circumstances or coincidences that determine whether one is going to follow the path to the left or to the right For most people it doesn t matter much which way they follow most get where they want to go perhaps with a few knubs but rarely life threatening In this book we follow a little Iranian boy Kioumars from the age of four until he as a middle aged man writes his memoirs as a Danish citizen in a suburb of Copenhagen For him conscious choices coincidences or external circumstances have several times meant life or death or vastly different life courses The book takes us to a newly built neighborhood in Tehran where we follow family life closely for better and worse described with a lovely sense of humor After the revolution Kioumars flees and the trip through the mountains to the Turkish border and the wait in Turkey is nerve wracking The final destination is Denmark where he encounters a very different culture in a welfare society that surprises him and presents challenges In the book Kioumars looks back on his life and on all the crossroads he has stood by Several times coincidences have saved his life coincidences also led him to Denmark and not to the United States which was originally his great wish not wanting to participate in the Iraq War was a conscious choice and led to the escape and later it was external circumstances that changed Kioumars s life radically as he did not flee but moved from Iran to Denmark The book is written humorously and unsentimentally but is still experienced as a heartbreaking tale of being a refugee and leaving his homeland and settling into a new culture Waste Trade Journal and Mill Stock Reporter ,1907 Portland Transcript ,1861 The Youth's
