The Sociology of Childhood and Youth in Canada Xiaobei Chen, Rebecca Raby, Patrizia Albanese, 2017-12-12 The sociology of childhood and youth has sparked international interest in recent years and yet a reader highlighting Canadian work in this field has been long overdue Filling this gap in the literature The Sociology of Childhood and Youth in Canada brings together cutting edge Canadian scholarship in this important and growing discipline Thought provoking and timely this edited collection explores a breadth of essential topics including research on and with children and youth the social construction of childhood and youth intersecting identities and citizenship rights and social engagement With a focus on social justice the contributing authors critically examine various sites of inequality in the lives of children and young people such as gender sexuality colonialism race class and disability Encouraging further development of Canadian scholarship in the sociology of childhood and youth this unique collection ensures that young people's voices are heard by involving them in the research process. Pedagogical supports including learning objectives, study questions, suggested research assignments, and a comprehensive glossary make this volume an invaluable resource for students of childhood and youth studies in Canada.

International Handbook of Chinese Families Chan Kwok-bun, 2012-12-09 Families are the cornerstone of Chinese society whether in mainland China, in Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macao, Singapore, Malaysia, or in the Chinese diaspora the world over. Handbook of the Chinese Family provides an overview of economics, politics, race, ethnicity, and culture within and external to the Chinese family as a social institution. While simultaneously evaluating its own methodological tools, this book will set current knowledge in the context of what has been previously studied, as well as future research directions. It will examine inter-family relationships and politics, as well as childrearing, education, and family economics, to provide a rounded and in-depth view.

Gender Relations in Canada Janet Siltanen, Andrea Doucet, 2008 This text focuses on how gender differences and inequalities play out in the social lives of men and women throughout the life course. Theory is linked with practice through a series of case studies that highlight current research from Canada, the United States, Britain, and Australia.

Mothering in the Age of Neoliberalism Giles Melinda Vandenberg, 2014-03-01 Neoliberal policies and austerity measures have unequivocally altered the landscape of women's lives globally. The most detrimental effect has been on mothers as they are faced with increasing responsibility and decreasing resources. Despite mothers being the primary producers, consumers, and reproducers of the neoliberal world, their centrality has been largely silenced within economic discourse. Thus, Mothering in the Age of Neoliberalism calls for a new economic framework to counter the individualized neoliberal model, one in which the needs of mothers and children are prioritized. This volume provides a crucial starting point. By identifying the sources of neoliberal failure toward mothers, we can begin to collectively formulate an alternative paradigm in which mothers' voices are no longer rendered invisible but rather predominate in the global landscape.

Families Maureen Baker, Bettina Bradbury, 2001 Overview 007 086413 2 Softcover 448 pp Copyright 2001 11 2000 41 95 Revised to ensure up-to-date coverage of key issues in accordance with its high academic reputation while introducing a new reader-friendly design. Families: Changing Trends in Canada has always been a widely adopted text for the first course in Sociology of the Family. Maureen Baker's aim as general editor has been to create a Canadian textbook in family studies for post-secondary students which incorporates an interdisciplinary, historical, comparative, and mainly structural perspective, but which is inclusive of various theoretical perspectives. The newly added pedagogical elements will engage students taking the course at universities and community colleges. The fourth edition of Families reflects the evolving nature of the family by paying increased attention to gay, lesbian, and multicultural issues. It includes updated statistics and discussion of recent legal reforms, providing students with background on three censuses and other demographic surveys, new studies in social history, recent legal debate, and the growing focus on cultural variations in families. The fourth edition also offers new theoretical approaches that incorporate poststructuralist and feminist theory in order to help students understand how family gender relations and personal life have been influenced by post industrial or post modern society Most contributors are sociologists but several have formal qualifications or a research background in psychology education women s studies history and social policy The result is a text that shows that family life in Canada as elsewhere is in a constant state of change
