Video Game Influences on Aggression, Cognition, and Attention Christopher J. Ferguson, 2018-08-21 This book addresses the ongoing scientific debates regarding video games and their effects on players The book features opposing perspectives and offers point and counterpoint exchanges in which researchers on both sides of a specific topic make their best case for their findings and analysis Chapters cover both positive and negative effects of video games on players behavior and cognition from contributing to violence and alienation to promoting therapeutic outcomes for types of cognitive dysfunction The contrasting viewpoints model presents respectful scientific debate encourages open dialogue and allows readers to come to informed conclusions Key questions addressed include Do violent video games promote violence Does video game addiction exist Should parents limit children s use of interactive media Do action video games promote visual attention Does sexist content in video games promote misogyny in real life Can video games slow the progress of dementia Are video games socially isolating Video Game Influences on Aggression Cognition and Attention is a must have resource for researchers clinicians and professionals as well as graduate students in developmental psychology social work educational policy and politics criminology criminal justice child and school psychology sociology media law and other related disciplines

Attention and Performance XVII Daniel Gopher, Asher Koriat, 1999 In 1966 the first meeting of the Association for the Study of Attention and Performance was held in the Netherlands to promote the emerging science of cognitive psychology This volume is based on the most recent conference held in Israel thirty years later The focus of the conference was the interaction between theory and application The organizers chose the specific topic cognitive regulation of performance because it is an area where contemporary theories of cognitive processes meet the everyday challenges posed by human interactions with complex systems Present day technological systems impose on the operator a variety of supervisory functions such as input and output monitoring allocation of cognitive resources choice of strategies and regulation of cognitive operations A challenge for engineers and designers is to accommodate the cognitive requirements called for by these systems The book is divided into four sections the presentation and representation of information cognitive regulation of acquisition and performance consciousness and behavior and special populations aging and neurological disorders Contributors Nicole D Anderson Moshe Bar Lynn Bardell Alice E Barnes Irving Biederman Robert A Bjork Richard A Block Fergus I M Craik Heiner Deubel John Dunlosky Ido Erev Ronald Fisher John M Flach Barry Goettl Morris Goldsmith Daniel Gopher Lynn Hasher Okihide Hikosaka Larry L Jacoby Peter Kalocsai Colleen Kelley David E Kieras Roberta Klatzky Asher Koriat Arthur F Kramer Elisabetta Ladavas John L Larish Susan J Lederman John Long Cynthia P May Guiliana Mazzoni Brian McElree David Meyer Satoru Miyauchi Neville Moray Louis Narens Thomas O Nelson Raymond S Nickerson Lynne Reder J Wesley Regian Ian Robertson Wolfgang Schneider Christian D Schunn Wayne Shebilske Shinsuke Shimojo Suresh Subramaniam Tom N Trainham Jehoshua Tsal Timothy A Weber Christopher Wickens Rose T Zacks Dan Zakay De

Gruyter Handbook of Media Psychology Rachel L. Bailey, Glenna L. Read, 2025-10-05 This book presents a survey of contemporary research investigating the psychological processes related to media consumption As a rapidly growing and changing sub discipline of mass communication Media Psychology analyzes how media facilitate communication and how communication in turn shapes attitudes emotions and behavior The handbook addresses leading ideas and debates in media psychology persisting lines of inquiry and new areas of interest Adopting an organizational approach that embraces a dynamic systems perspective the book is subdivided into sections that examine nested components of the larger system in question such as audiences messages content and context while also acknowledging that they do not function in isolation

Perception of visual advertising in different media: from attention to distraction, persuasion, preference and memory Jaana Simola, Jukka Hyönä, Jarmo Kuisma, 2015-02-24 This Research Topic aims to showcase the state of the art in visual advertising research Although visual processes are a central component of consumer behavior they have been largely neglected in models explaining consumer perception of advertising Rather than being the mere input into the cognitive or affective systems the visual processes both voluntarily and involuntarily affect the amount and quality of information that is passed into further mental processing Moreover advertisements provide a well designed rich and stimulating environment to study visual processes in real life conditions Consumers encounter thousands of advertisement messages per day Previous research on visual perception of advertising mostly considers print advertising However advertising messages increasingly appear in a variety of formats and in different media Part of these messages are still conveyed through traditional media such as newspapers magazines television as well as outdoor and supermarket advertising In addition the amount and diversity of visual marketing stimuli is rapidly growing in terms of different advertising formats appearing in online and social media smartphones and tablets This challenges the marketing professionals and academics to better understand the impact of marketing on consumers At the same time the technical development of the research methods allows better opportunities to investigate advertising perception in different environments Traditionally papers investigating the psychological processes underlying advertising perception are published in journals widespread across different disciplines such as marketing applied psychology and human computer interaction journals With this Research Topic we aim to create a forum in which experts in different fields define the state of the art and future directions of the research on the visual aspects of marketing We include reviews and original research papers involving both empirical and theoretical studies on visual perception of advertising across different media
