Handbook of Research on Gender and Leadership Susan R. Madsen, 2024-01-18 Although some progress has been made in recent decades in getting women into top positions in government business and education there are persisting challenges with efforts to improve opportunities for women in leadership This essential second edition of the Handbook of Research on Gender and Leadership comprises the latest research from the world's foremost scholars on women and leadership exposing problems and offering both theoretical and practical solutions on strengthening the impact of women worldwide

Youth Violence Catherine Ward, Andrew Dawes, Amelia van der Merwe, 2012-01-25 Youth violence Sources and solutions in South Africa thoroughly and carefully reviews the evidence for risk and protective factors that influence the likelihood of young people acting aggressively Layers of understanding are built by viewing the problem from a multitude of perspectives including the current situation in which South African youth are growing up perspectives from developmental psychology the influences of race class and gender and of the media The book then reviews the evidence for effective interventions in the contexts of young people's lives their homes their schools their leisure activities with gangs in the criminal justice system in cities and neighbourhoods and with sexual offenders In doing so thoughtful suggestions are made for keeping an evidence based perspective while necessarily adapting interventions for developing world contexts such as South Africa Youth violence in South Africa Sources and solutions is a valuable addition to the library of anyone who has ever wondered about youth violence or wanted to do something about it

Consent Laurie James-Hawkins, Róisín Ryan-Flood, 2023-11-30 This book considers the concept of consent in different contexts with the aim of exploring the nuances of what consent means to different people and in different situations While it is generally agreed that consent is a fluid concept legal and social attempts to explain its meaning often centre on overly simplistic narrow and binary definitions viewing consent as something that occurs at a specific point in time This book examines the nuances of consent and how it is enacted and re enacted in different settings including online spaces and across time Consent is most often connected to the idea of sexual assault and is often viewed as a straight forward concept and one that can be easily explained Yet there is confusion among the public as well as among academics and professionals as to what consent truly is and even the degree to which individuals conceptualise and act on their own ideas about consent within their own lives Topics covered include consent in digital and online interactions consent in education consent in legal settings and the legal boundaries of consent and consent in sexual situations including sex under the influence of substances BDSM and kinky sex This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in issues of consent from the social sciences gender theory feminist studies law psychology public health and sexuality studies

Women Entrepreneurs in Sub-Saharan Africa Marina Dabić, Léo-Paul Dana, Dina Modestus Nziku, Veland Ramadani, 2022-06-17 According to a 2018 World Bank report Africa is the only region with more women than men choosing to become entrepreneurs a phenomenon that is not the subject of adequate discussion This book reveals the latest research based understanding of the entrepreneurial activities of women in sub Saharan Africa Specially invited subject experts present salient dimensions of entrepreneurship by African women from environmental factors to motivations and influencers as well as financial and non financial constraints and highlight the significant role of cultural differences This book provides a mixture of theoretical conceptual and empirical research and fills the knowledge gap by presenting a wide range of opportunities and challenges faced by sub Saharan African women entrepreneurs This book will help policy makers and academic researchers in understanding the role of institutions and entrepreneurship policy in building a thriving entrepreneurial ecosystem in the region #MeToo and Modernism Robin E. Field, Jerrica

Jordan, 2023-01-16 MeToo and Modernism offers a blend of cultural historical literary and pedagogical responses applied to the themes behind today's ongoing MeToo Movement This volume is organized into four sections a three part chronological response in which scholars analyze literary understandings of how ripples of the MeToo Movement began to emerge in Modernist literature followed by a pedagogical section on how to incorporate such teachings in university classrooms Editors Robin E Field and Jerrica Jordan foreword the collection with an introduction answering the question of why such a volume is necessary in today's educational landscape The introduction summarizes the current scholarship regarding MeToo and Modernism while also uncovering the omissions particularly in approaching nonbinary or queer writers as well as writers of color that still exist as a response many of these essays attempt to approach these gaps Furthermore the introduction shows how more traditional Modernist writers including Woolf Forster Wells and Joyce served as forerunners of early glimmers of the MeToo Movement in Modernist Literature Frontiers in Social Innovation Neil Malhotra, 2022-03-01
