Pareidolia Damir Salkovic,2025-12-12 When disgraced celebrity biographer Don Ruby is offered a contract with a reputable publishing house he's sure there's been a mistake. He goes to clear things up with the actual writer in question but finds him dead. On impulse he pockets the man's notes and embarks on the writing project himself: a biography of a once famous horror film director. More specifically, the director's lost movie, The Unveiling. The more Don learns about the film, the more disassociated he becomes from reality. There's something sinister behind The Unveiling, something that wants to be reborn and it needs Don to do it. New York Magazine, 1986-10-20. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

God, I'm Still Trying, Please Keep Forgiving Brandon L. Boswell,2025-03-16 The overall theme of God, I'm Still Trying, Please Keep Forgiving is simple: Keep trying. Each of us has one shot at life. Once it's over, it's over. Don't let the distractions and regrets that you've already faced cause you to give up. Keep pressing forward. Despite our past choices, God can still do incredible things in the lives of anyone who puts their faith and trust in Him. That includes me and you. New York, 2003. Records and Briefs California (State)., Building Digital Libraries Terry Reese, Kyle Banerjee, 2008. Demonstrates how resources are created, distributed, and accessed, and how librarians can keep up with the latest technologies for successfully completing these tasks. The Country Gentleman, 1916. Death Row Shirley Dicks, 1990. I don't know when we will stop murdering people, whether randomly on the streets or systematically in our death chambers. The only way to prevent continuation of the suffering and grief, murder occasions, in to prevent murder, I have worked with eighteen people who have been executed, and five of those I'm convinced were innocent. The words of Joe Ingle, said to be a 1988 Nobel Peace Prize nominee from Part I, which looks at those who are involved with the fight against the death sentence. The guy I am convicted of killing shot me three times before I fired at him. When I look back on life and think about it, I wonder why those thirteen people can decide if I should die. Society does not feel our pain, the horror of knowing the exact hour and day that they will set us in the chair and kill us. Mr. D, one of the 11 death row inmates interviewed in Part II. Part III interviews family members. This thought-provoking collection provides much insight on this controversial issue. The United States' stand on the death penalty, in light of U.S. leadership in human rights, appears to be a contradiction to the rest of the world. The methods of execution are sometimes extremely painful and not quick. An overwhelming percentage of those on death row are impoverished and would not be there if they had other resources besides desultory and ineffective court-appointed counsel. These and other important issues are
