The Art and Craft of Comparison John Boswell, Jack Corbett, R. A. W. Rhodes, 2019-10-24 Is it possible to compare French presidential politics with village leadership in rural India Most social scientists are united in thinking such unlikely juxtapositions are not feasible Boswell Corbett and Rhodes argue that they are possible This book explains why and how It is a call to arms for interpretivists to embrace creatively comparative work As well as explaining defending and illustrating the comparative interpretive approach this book is also an engaging hands on guide to doing comparative interpretive research with chapters covering design fieldwork analysis and writing The advice in each revolves around rules of thumb grounded in experience and illustrated through stories and examples from the authors research in different contexts around the world Naturalist and humanist traditions have thus far dominated the field but this book presents a real alternative to these two orthodoxies which expands the horizons of comparative analysis in social science research Treat Yourself to Life ,1986
