

The background is a collage of architectural images. On the left, there's a vertical strip of a red wall. The main area is divided into several panels: a top-left panel with a light, textured background; a top-right panel with a teal background and a classical building; a bottom-left panel with a light, textured background; and a bottom-right panel with a warm, golden-brown background showing a modern building with a curved facade and many windows.
