Refinery 29, The New York Times bestseller, and Read with Jenna TODAY SHOW Book Club pick, telling the story of three generations of Palestinian American women struggling to express their individual desires within the confines of their Arab culture in the wake of shocking intimate violence in their community. Palestine 1990: Seventeen-year-old Isra prefers reading books to entertaining the suitors her father has chosen for her. Over the course of a week, the naive and dreamy girl finds herself quickly betrothed and married and is soon living in Brooklyn. There, Isra struggles to adapt to the expectations of her oppressive mother-in-law, Fareeda, and strange new husband, Adam, a pressure that intensifies as she begins to have children.

Brooklyn 2008: Eighteen-year-old Deya, Isra's oldest daughter, must meet with potential husbands at her grandmother Fareeda's insistence, though her only desire is to go to college. Deya can't help but wonder if her options would have been different had her parents survived the car crash that killed them when Deya was only eight. But her grandmother is firm on the matter: the only way to secure a worthy future for Deya is through marriage to the right man. But fate has a will of its own, and soon Deya will find herself on an unexpected path that leads her to shocking truths about her family, knowledge that will force her to question everything she thought she knew about her parents, the past, and her own future.
