The Dreamcast Encyclopedia Chris Scullion,2023-11-30 The newest installment in Chris Scullion's video game encyclopedias The Dreamcast Encyclopedia is the fifth book in Scottish author and games journalist Chris Scullion's critically acclaimed series of video game encyclopedias The Sega Dreamcast is fondly remembered by players as a games console that was ahead of its time almost to a fault Its incredible graphics offered a level of detail that hadn't been seen on home systems to that point and its built in modem brought online multiplayer to many console players for the first time ever Ultimately though the release of the PS2 and later the GameCube and Xbox led to struggling sales and Sega would eventually pull the plug on the Dreamcast just two years into its life bowing out of the console manufacturing business altogether On paper the Dreamcast was a commercial failure but those who owned one remember it so fondly that for many it remains one of the greatest games consoles of all time with a small but well formed library of high quality games This book contains every one of those games including not only the entire western library of around 270 titles but also the 340 or so games that were exclusively released in Japan With over 600 games covered in total screenshots for every title and a light hearted writing style designed for an entertaining read The Dreamcast Encyclopedia is the definitive guide to one of the most underrated gaming systems of all time

The Basketball 100 The Athletic,David Aldridge,John Hollinger,2024-11-26 A celebration of basketball by way of the 100 greatest players to ever grace the court in the history of the NBA from The Athletic's foremost basketball writers and analysts the game has to offer With a foreword by Charles Barkley Over the course of 100 luminous player profiles the best sports newsroom on the planet paints vivid portraits of the game's most compelling characters There's George Mikan who was cut from his high school team because he wore glasses then went on to become the fledgling NBA's first transcendent star Gary Payton called The Glove for his skintight defense who talked as much trash to his teammates as he did to his opponents on the court Dennis Rodman who started playing basketball at age 20 and in a few short years went from working as a janitor at the airport to being one of the strangest superstars that sport has ever known Allen Iverson who drew inspiration from hip hop for his inimitable style and swagger on and off the court Kareem Abdul Jabbar who was so dominant in the paint that they changed the rules and Steph Curry who was so dominant outside it that he seemed to expand the very boundaries of the court The Basketball 100 edited by award winning reporters David Aldridge and John Hollinger also answers the game's toughest most important questions How should we weight championship rings versus statistical profiles versus the eye test Were the great players of yesteryear like Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell propelled by the inferior athleticism of their competition or would they have been transcendent in any era And of course who s the GOAT MJ or LeBron Speaking of GOATs for the book Hollinger inventor of the statistical metric PER has created a new benchmark GOAT Points Wonderfully written authoritative and full of joy The Basketball 100 is a fitting tribute to the greatest sport in the world
