Summarizing Literary Texts

OH Standard

RL.6.2b Incorporates a theme and story details into an objective summary of the text.

Theme: Puzzles and Mysteries

When you tell someone about your day, you include the important people, places, and events but leave out the little details. Similarly, a summary of a story is a brief retelling. It includes only the main characters, setting, important events, and theme.

When reading a story, you might have personal opinions, or feelings, about it. You might also make judgments about the story—whether it’s believable, well-written, and so on. Although it’s fine to have opinions and make judgments, don’t include them in a summary. A summary is supposed to be objective, or tell only the facts.

These pictures tell a story. What details would you include in a summary of the pictures?

Now read the summary below. Cross out phrases that do not belong in a summary.

In an unrealistic story, a boy and girl enter a living room and see drips coming from the ceiling. Although confused at first, they at least have the sense to check the bathroom above the living room. There, they discover the water is from an overflowing bathtub, confirming that the first step in solving any problem is figuring out the source.

What did you cross out? Remember, a summary of a literary texts should include only the important details without personal opinions or judgments. To write an objective summary, stick to the facts.

Write an objective version of this summary in the space below.
