Other Elect Jeremiah E. Dahl, 2025-05-30 An in depth breakdown of the theological and exegetical basis for salvation amongst the unevangelized in Reformed theology What is the fate of those who never hear the gospel What becomes of the unevangelized Does Reformed theology allow for belief that some even many who never hear the gospel are saved and if so what might that look like Perhaps more importantly does Scripture provide any hope for their salvation A standard answer from the Reformed tradition is that those who never hear the gospel are simply not elect if they were God in His sovereignty would have sent the gospel to them Yet the Westminster Confession affirms the reality of other elect those incapable of being outwardly called by the ministry of the Word WCF 10 3 Many luminaries of the Reformed tradition W G T Shedd A A Hodge John Gerstner Douglas F Kelly Philip Rollinson Richard J Mouw R C Sproul and others have left open the possibility this refers to the unevangelized Granting this possibility how can this be squared with the rest of Reformed theology and what exegetical ground is there for such a view This book seeks to establish the theological and exegetical framework necessary to support such a view It argues both that Reformed theology has the tools to account for such a possibility and that Scripture provides ample evidence to not just establish the possibility but the reality of salvation amongst the unevangelized The Thirty-nine articles of the Church of England, a historical and speculative exposition Joseph Miller (rector of Gt. American Crossroads Jesse Wisnewski, 2011-08-25 Should Christians be concerned with faith and evangelism and not political affairs In answering this question American Crossroads provides a thought provoking look at what it means to submit to the governing authorities of the United States of America Just as God called for Christians to submit to the Roman government that forced its will upon the people Rom 13 1 so too is God calling for us to submit to the existing form of government in the United States a government that lives and thrives upon the will and involvement of people Today by submitting to the government Christian citizens are led to influence the American political process that depends upon the involvement of all citizens for its well being and survival The Mosaic of Christian Belief Roger E. Olson, 2016-03-21 In this second edition of Roger E Olson's classic work he thematically traces the contours of Christian belief down through the ages revealing a pattern of both unity and diversity He finds a consensus of teaching that is both unitive and able to incorporate a faithful diversity when not forced into the molds of false either or alternatives

Justification as the Speech of the Spirit Jeffrey K. Anderson,2021-08-10 In the past few decades there have been an increasing number of authors and movements that reject the classic Protestant understanding of justification e g the New Perspective on Paul Auburn Avenue Theology the Renewal Movement etc While the various proposals differ in many respects they are generally united in their rejection of justification as a legal declaration made by the Father about the believer based on the work of the Son In particular among renewal Pentecostal Charismatic authors there have been several attempts to redefine justification insisting that it is an umbrella term incorporating numerous redemptive ideas rather than a declaration of the believer s righteousness These attempts are in part rooted in the absence of any overt pneumatology in the doctrine s typical formulation One need only read the above sentences to see that there is no mention of the Holy Spirit This book addresses these and other concerns especially by renewal authors and demonstrate that the doctrine is in fact pneumatologically informed albeit latently rather than blatantly As a result there is no need to redefine the theology of the Reformers and their successors
