Start Where You Are A Guide To Compassionate Living Pema Chodron:

Start Where You Are Pema Chodron, 2018-11-06 The perennially helpful guide to transforming our pains and difficulties into opportunities for genuine joy and personal growth from the beloved Buddhist nun and author of When Things Fall Apart. We all want to be fearless joyful and fully alive. And we all know that it's not so easy. We're bombarded every day with false promises of ways to make our lives better. Buy this, go here, eat this, don't do that. The list goes on and on. But Pema Chodron shows that until we get to the heart of who we are and really make friends with ourselves, everything we do will always be superficial. In this perennial self-help bestseller, Pema offers down-to-earth guidance on how we can go beyond the fleeting attempts to fix our pain and instead take our lives as they are as the only path to achieve what we all yearn for most deeply: to embrace rather than deny the difficulties of our lives. These teachings framed around fifty-nine traditional Tibetan Buddhist maxims point us directly to our own hearts and minds such as: Always meditate on whatever provokes resentment. Be grateful to everyone and don't expect applause. By working with these slogans as everyday meditations, Start Where You Are shows how we can all develop the courage to work with our own inner pain and discover true joy, holistic well-being, and unshakeable confidence.

Discovering the Art of Soul Friending Carolyn Gratton, 2019-01-28 This friendly, accessible book is about the age-old hunger in human hearts to open and deepen and grow towards faithful intimacy with the Source of all that is. This spiritual journey is radically personal, but it is not meant to be entirely solitary. It can be supported at crucial times by friendship with someone who has learned how to listen through a life of prayer for the guidance of God's Spirit in their own soul and in the soul of another. Long ago in Celtic Christian Ireland, such a person was called an anam cara, a soul friend. Every soul, from time to time, on its mysterious trek towards union with God needs a human friend for encouragement on the way. In Discovering the Art of Soul Friending, Carolyn Gratton invites us to say yes to the ability to share with another and to disclose something of oneself on each seeker's journey towards union with God. Enriched by a lifetime of insights gained from educating groups around the world, she guides aspiring spiritual companions to a discernment of their own level of spiritual maturity, sensitivity in the art of spiritual guidance, and to a seeker's desire for the soil from which their truest love can spring: a commitment to prayer and the transformation of consciousness. It makes possible rootedness in their own faith tradition and, throughout life, an openness to the expanded perceptions possible in our multicultural world. Carolyn completes each chapter with what she calls a Book Providence section: an annotated bibliography of resources that can expand the discernment skills and contextual awareness of potential soul friends.
