Export Facilitation through Banking Products and Services in the Eurasian Economic Union Darkhan Shildebayev, 2017-08-08 Master's Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Economics International Economic Relations grade 1 language English abstract Small and medium enterprises contribute to more than 50% of GDP in the developed economies Yet in developing markets such as Kazakhstan this sector remains untapped since SMEs are considered risky and not transparent enough to be financed by banks. Meanwhile there is a lot of discussion whether SMEs in Kazakhstan can withstand the rivalry from their competitors within the newly formed Eurasian Economic Union. Remaining a threat for weak SMEs, the economic union is also a great opportunity for exporting SMEs in Kazakhstan to expand their businesses through exporting their products and services to the member states of the union. The study aims at identifying the challenges that are faced by the exporting SMEs in Kazakhstan when applying for banking products. Out of these challenges, a number of recommendations are developed for the banking industry in Kazakhstan. The results of the quantitative analysis applied in the study reveal that high interest rates and bank fees, documentary requirements and communication issues are the main challenges that are faced by the exporting SMEs in Kazakhstan. Therefore, banks are recommended to improve their risk assessment methodologies to provide the SMEs with training programs and to improve their communication with the exporting SMEs. The findings of the study and the proposed recommendations can be applied both by the private and state banking institutions. Moreover, banks and other financial institutions can develop their own measures based on the findings revealed in this study. The measures can then be implemented in order to make the banking products more accessible for the exporting SMEs in Kazakhstan.

Der Titel der Schau zitiert den expressionistischen Dichter August Stramm, der sein Gedicht Wunde im ersten Weltkrieg verfasste und diesem ebenfalls zum Opfer fiel. In der Präsentation sind Werke von 60 Künstlern und Künstlerinnen aus 12 europäischen Nationen zu sehen, von denen einige Namen in Deutschland und international im Gedächtnis geblieben sind. Dazu zählen Franz Marc und August Macke, Albert Weisgerber und Umberto Boccioni. Die Werke vieler weiterer Künstler sind gar nicht erst oder nur sporadisch in öffentliche Sammlungen gelangt und finden in dieser Ausstellung erstmals ein öffentliches Forum. Sterne fallen zeichnet ein breites Spektrum unterschiedlichster Stilrichtungen in einer Zeit einschneidender politischer und künstlerischer Umwälzungen auf. Es werden Gemälde, Grafiken und Skulpturen von meist jungen Talenten zu sehen sein, von denen viele kaum Gelegenheit hatten, ihr Werk reifen zu lassen. Die Ausstellung spricht damit auch der Frage nach, inwiefern diese Zurschaufwirkungen auf die gesamte klassische Moderne genommen hat.
