➤ Exercise 26

Choose the correct answer for each space

Choosing your first job

In general we will all spend about two thirds of our life at work. This means that we will probably have many different jobs over the years. However, our first (21)..... of work is a very important one. If our first job is (22)....., we won't be worried about working. But if we have a job that makes us feel anxious or miserable, we may think that work is something to dislike forever. For this reason a person should think carefully before they (23)..... for their first job. For example, if you are the type of person that enjoys working outside and being very active, it would be silly to choose a(n) (24)..... such as a receptionist. And let's face it, many people who start their first job are still teenagers with lots of energy. It's also important to have a job where you like your (25)..... . There is nothing worse than having a boss that you don't like. But of course, you need to work hard and show that you are (26)..... in order for them to trust you and know that you will do your job well.
