GIRLS@ Freya India, 2026-02-26 Anyone who cares about the girls and young women in their lives should read GIRLS Jonathan Haidt author of The Anxious Generation GIRLS Gen Z and the Commodification of Everything is a passionate provocative and deeply personal journey into the pressures shaping young lives today Freya India shows that age old anxieties of girlhood are now being amplified by modern life and exploited like never before While previous generations of women were relentlessly sold products and procedures we have become the product We display our lives on Instagram advertise ourselves on dating apps and package ourselves into personal brands making anxiety feel overwhelming and unmanageable We have transformed from girls into GIRLS from people into products Each chapter of GIRLS focuses on a common anxiety in adolescent girls lives from insecurities about our faces and bodies to our reputation and social status to our friendships and romantic relationships Along the way India traces how rapidly culture and technology have evolved over the past decade This isn't just a book for girls For young women it offers a nostalgic if unsettling reflection on the world they've grown up in and reassurance that they're not alone in their struggles For younger girls it provides context for where these challenges began and warns where they might be headed And for parents teachers and older generations it serves as a reminder that these issues have never been so intense GIRLS concludes with a message of hope reminding readers how to reclaim their privacy defend their dignity and above all return to being people instead of products Girls' Positionalities

at the Intersection of Identity and Violence Clara Chapdelaine-Feliciati, 2026-02-22 The edited volume explores the unique positionality of girls as they experience gender based violence While girl children are often placed under the umbrella of womanhood their location at the intersection of femalehood and childhood places them in a unique position with regards to various forms of exploitation and violence Feminist theories including feminist legal theory provide pertinent avenues to explore girls' positionalities yet girl children should also be contextualized in relation to their current lived experiences This book firstly explores the cultural and visual portrayal of girlhood and its relationship with gender based violence and secondly provides case studies of specific violations of human rights encompassing sexual violence and exploitation It considers legal social and economic avenues to support girls in reclaiming their identity dignity and bodily integrity

America is losing a war it barely knows it's fighting. At the heart of China's strategy is the 90% Model: build capacity to meet 90% of global demand, sell at below marginal cost with 20% deliberately depreciated currency, flood markets with subsidized exports, destroy competitors. Ten American industries destroyed including Furniture, Textiles, Basic chemicals, Pharmaceutical ingredients, Solar panels. The next ten targeted include New materials, Bio pharma, Artificial intelligence, Aerospace, High tech ships. China can shut down your industry at will. Within weeks. The assault is deliberate. But it's not too late. This book shows the path to fight back and win. The Coming Food Crisis John Klar, 2026-03-17. They're coming for your food. Multinational corporations, Animal rights extremists, Climate crusaders. Together they're waging a relentless assault on America's farms and your freedom to eat what you choose. In The Coming Food Crisis John Klar rips back the curtain on the hidden power grab reshaping how and what we eat. Every year more farm families vanish, replaced by corporate giants and imported products. As food prices soar and supply chains wobble, Klar exposes the powerful forces: political activist and corporate turning America's and the world's food supply into a tool of control. He reveals how agenda-driven climate and animal rights policies drive up costs and destroy family farms; how reckless economic policies and global monopolization threaten famine and chaos; and how ultra-processed food is undermining our health. This book is Klar's urgent call to wake up, fight back, and reclaim food sovereignty before disaster strikes. If Americans don't stand up for their farms, they surrender control over their most basic human need. Because once you lose your food, you lose everything. Language Learning Beyond the Classroom Jocelyn Guevarra, 2026-03-05. Essay from the year 2026 in the subject Didactics, English course Language Teaching, language English, abstract. This essay examines the role of social media in second language acquisition (SLA), situating its impact within established theories and empirical research. Drawing on Krashen's Input Hypothesis, Vygotsky's Sociocultural Theory, and Wenger's Communities of Practice, it shows how platforms such as YouTube, TikTok, Instagram, and Facebook provide authentic input, foster interaction, and support identity construction. Empirical studies indicate that active participation in online communities enhances vocabulary, pragmatic competence, intercultural awareness, and learner motivation. At the same time, challenges such as misinformation, distraction, fragmented learning, and unequal access complicate its integration into formal pedagogy. The essay argues that social media functions as a hybrid learning environment, bridging formal and informal processes while reshaping learner autonomy and cultural participation. By critically assessing both opportunities and limitations, it underscores the need for pedagogical frameworks that help learners navigate digital spaces responsibly and inclusively. Ultimately, the essay contributes to debates in applied linguistics by positioning social media as a powerful yet complex force in language education, with implications for practice, equity, and future research.
