Identity Milan Kundera:

Identity Milan Kundera, 1998 Sometimes perhaps only for an instant we fail to recognise a companion for a moment their identity ceases to exist and thus we come to doubt our own The effect is at its most acute in a couple where our existence is given meaning by our perception of a lover and theirs of us With his astonishing skill at building on and out from the significant moment Kundera has placed such a situation and the resulting wave of panic at the core of the novel In a narrative as intense as it is brief a moment of confusion sets in motion a complex chain of events which forces the reader to cross and recross the divide between fantasy and reality Profound sad and disquieting but above all a love story Identity provides further proof of Kundera's astonishing gifts as a novelist

Identity Milan Kundera, 1998-04-21 Milan Kundera's Identity translated from the French by Linda Asher There are situations in which we fail for a moment to recognize the person we are with in which the identity of the other is erased while we simultaneously doubt our own That also happens with couples indeed above all with couples because lovers fear more than anything else losing sight of the loved one With stunning artfulness in expanding and playing variations on the meaningful moment Milan Kundera has made this situation and the vague sense of panic it inspires the very fabric of his new novel Here brevity goes hand in hand with intensity and a moment of bewilderment marks the start of a labyrinthine journey during which the reader repeatedly crosses the border between the real and the unreal between what occurs in the world outside and what the mind creates in its solitude Of all contemporary writers only Kundera can transform such a hidden and disconcerting perception into the material for a novel one of his finest most painful and most enlightening Which surprisingly turns out to be a love story IDENTITY SIGND

ED Kundera Milan, 1998-04-24 There are situations in which we fail for a moment to recognize the person we are with in which the identity of the other is erased while we simultaneously doubt our own That also happens with couples indeed above all with couples because lovers fear more than anything else losing sight of the loved one With artfulness in expanding and playing variations on the meaningful moment Milan Kundera has made this situation and the vague sense of panic it inspires the very fabric of his new novel Here brevity goes hand in hand with intensity and a moment of bewilderment marks the start of a labyrinthine journey during which the reader repeatedly crosses the border between the real and the unreal between what occurs in the world outside and what the mind creates in its solitude Identity Giselle Walker, Elisabeth

Leedham-Green, 2010-11-04 Aspects of identity explored by eight distinguished authors from different academic disciplines

Self-Identity and Powerlessness Alice Koubová, 2013-05-30 In Self-Identity and Powerlessness Alice Koubová proposes a conception of human existence that does not essentially depend on the definition of self-identity The author shows that the philosophical stress on human identity fails to grasp essential aspects of human existence By emphasizing the moments of Dasein's powerlessness in Heidegger's fundamental ontology she develops in her analysis of various philosophers literary examples and social psychology an original phenomenology of alternation of existence and affair How necessary is identity for thinking Are we capable of philosophical thought even when we have neither ourselves nor the world under our full control Is it possible to relax become powerless and yet think precisely These questions are to be answered in this book

Ashok Chopra, 2016-02-15 Reports announcing the death of the book are now rife but the continued relevance of the ten master writers discussed in this volume is proof to the contrary Here we come across the dissident Czech writer V clav Havel who later became the nation s president the South African Nobel Laureate Nadine Gordimer with her pronounced anti apartheid novels the Chilean American Isabel Allende the world s most widely read Spanish author and G nter Grass hailed as the literary spokesman of his generation We also meet Graham Greene and Milan Kundera alongside the Egyptian Naguib Mahfouz who in his quiet way ridiculed Islamic fundamentalism The book is rounded off with three remarkable Latin American writers Pablo Neruda Octavio Paz and Gabriel Garc a M rquez Of Love and Other Sorrows takes the reader on a fascinating journey in the company of some of the biggest names in modern literature This illuminating study of their lives and works will seduce readers to rediscover these masters for themselves The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, David Remnick, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1998-04 Nations, Identity, Power

Jessica Nemeč, 2017 Questions of Identity Robert B. Pynsent, 1994 Questions of Identity treats four varieties of conceptions of individual and social identity This interdisciplinary book describes and analyzes four trends of thought that have prevailed at one time in most of Europe over the last two centuries the idea of the responsible citizen the concept of patriotism or nationalism the loss of self and suffering as a formative element in the national character In a section devoted to V clav Havel Pynsent treats Havel s notion of personal identity as expressed in personal responsibility Another section concerning national identity looks in particular at two early nineteenth century Slovaks who rejected Slovak nationalism and whose ideas ultimately had a profound impact on East European thinking on nationality up to the fall of communism A third section deals with the beginnings of Modernism and the apparent disintegration of the self in West European and Czech writers The final section addresses Vladimir P r a l s expositions of the Czech cult of national martyrs since St Wenceslas and the extent to which the martyr complex remains part of Czech self identification Gender, Identity and the Polish Experience of War, 1939-1945 Katherine R. Jolluck,1995 Image and Identity Akbar Naqvi,1998 Celebrating fifty years of Pakistani painting and sculpture this is the definitive story of the introduction and unfolding of modern art in Pakistan

The Transformation of National Identity in the Basque Country of France, 1789-2006 Igor Ahedo Gurrutxaga,2008 This work demonstrates how feelings of national identity have changed over the last two hundred years in Iparralde or the Basque Country of France The Negotiation of Personal Identity Meena Dhanda,2008 In this book Meena Dhanda presents an account of personal identity as a complex of which moral identity and practical identity are the two most important elements moral identity as one s sense of identity as a person as such and practical identity as one or more of the structured ways in which one expresses one s moral identity Taking as her main example the situation of India s Dalits Dhanda argues that overall personal identity is to be understood as the outcome of an on going process of negotiation above all between these two elements Given the centrality of the roles played by different and often over lapping conceptions of what constitutes identity not only in the world of theoretical debate but also in that of political and personal practice Dhanda s arguments in favour of seeing these matters in terms of negotiation rather than in those of simple and mutually un comprehending conflict will be of very great interest to all concerned with the many problems of personal and inter communal experience to day Alan Montefiore Emeritus Fellow of Balliol College Oxford Identity Dynamics and the Construction of Boundaries Bo Petersson, Eric Clark,2003 How is identity constructed maintained and altered in different geographical personal and societal contexts A multi disciplinary approach is indispensable for an understanding of the deeply intertwined processes of identity construction and boundary formation In this spirit Identity Dynamics and the construction of Boundaries brings together scholars from political science human geography and area studies who present a variety of perspectives on the subject It is the fruit of a series of seminars and workshops on the themes of identity nationalism globalisation migration citizenship and the removal and displacement of borders The authors analyse a number of issues regarding identity and boundary construction drawing on case studies from a wide range of countries including Denmark Ireland Sweden and Russia
