

Tips for posting your Black Friday campaigns

1

Time it perfectly

The excitement for Black Friday usually starts the moment November kicks off, but posting too far in advance can make the hype die down long before the day even arrives.

Time your posts to create hype that will last until the big day! Keep in mind that posting too close to Black Friday can make it difficult for real hype to build over time.

Have all the relevant information

With Black Friday being as big of a deal as it is, a lot of people plan out their Black Friday shopping in advance.

When you post about your upcoming specials, make sure that you include all the relevant information.

People want to know what items will be on sale, how long your offering will last and how much they will save.

Make sure they know why it counts as a Black Friday special and why it is worth standing in line or staying up late for.

2

Don't let them forget

We have already established that Black Friday is a big deal! That means that people get bombarded with Black Friday posts.

Not only do you want to stand out, but you have to ensure that they don't forget about you and your deals.

Create a build up or count down that will remind your audience of you and your special Black Friday offerings up until the last moment.

3

Be adaptable

The wonderful thing about social media is that you can get an idea of how your campaign and posts are being perceived — especially if you use social media monitoring and analysis.

You need to be able to adapt according to the public's reaction to your campaign.

You need to adjust your campaign and strategy to change the aspects that are not working best and lean into the aspects that are getting the best results and engagement.
