Live Nation Hegemony: The Ruthless Consolidation of Concert Ticketing Deandre H. Thomas, Buying a concert ticket today feels less like a transaction and more like a shakedown Fans endure digital queues dynamic pricing that adjusts to demand in real time and exorbitant service fees that can double the cost of entry This infuriating experience is entirely by design engineered by the absolute monopolistic control of the Live Nation and Ticketmaster merger By controlling not only the ticketing software but also the physical venues the artist management and the promotional infrastructure this corporate behemoth has eliminated any meaningful competition If an independent venue refuses to use their ticketing system they simply route the world s biggest pop stars to a compliant competitor This vertical integration allows them to artificially inflate prices blame scalpers for shortages and extract massive rents from both artists and fans The resulting cartel has stifled innovation and turned the joy of live music into an exclusive luxury product operating with total impunity against antitrust legislation This deep dive
