Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the position of Film Liberia Content Mastering and Localisation Operations Coordinator at Netflix. As an experienced film and television professional with a passion for international content, I am confident that I would be an asset to your team.

I have been a devoted fan of Netflix for many years and have always been impressed by the diverse range of content offered by the platform. What sets Netflix apart from other companies in the industry is its commitment to showcasing content from all around the world. As someone who has always been fascinated by different cultures and languages, I am thrilled at the opportunity to work with a company that shares these values.

What particularly excites me about this position is the opportunity to work with the Film Liberia team. As a Content Mastering and Localisation Operations Coordinator, I would have the chance to collaborate with a team of talented individuals who are passionate about bringing diverse stories to the global audience. The prospect of being a part of this team and contributing to the success of the company is truly exciting to me.

I bring with me [number] years of experience in the film and television industry, with a focus on international content. In my current role as a Content Coordinator at a major production company, I have gained valuable experience in managing and coordinating the production process from start to finish. I have also developed strong project management skills and have a proven track record of delivering projects on time and within budget.

One of the aspects of this position that I find most appealing is the emphasis on mastering and localisation. In my previous role, I had the opportunity to work closely with the localisation team and was responsible for ensuring that all content was adapted for

How To Write Amazing Cover Letters The Hyperink Team,2012-02-12 ABOUT THE BOOK If a resume is a window into your past work experience a cover letter is the tool you use to install it Cover letters were once just an after thought something most people used to simply regurgitate their resumes In fact it wasn't until the last decade that cover letters gained wide acceptance and importance Today not only is the cover letter just as important as a resume it can be the deciding factor in whether a hiring manager looks at your resume or throws it in the trash But how do you write the kind of amazing cover letter that will get you in the door How can you create a narrative of your professional experience that makes the HR person sit up and take notice The key is knowing how to present yourself It does not matter if you've spent 30 years in the work force or are just entering it the fact remains that you need to learn to how convince someone else to interview you

MEET THE AUTHOR The Hyperink Team works hard to bring you high quality engaging fun content If ever you have any questions about our products or suggestions for how we can make them better please don t hesitate to contact us Happy reading

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK You ve probably figured out a few mistakes to avoid already but you d probably be surprised at what many employers are turned off by when reading cover letters Lack of proofreading This is a no brainer but many people often miss them or don t bother to spell check before sending out the cover letter and resume It s always a good idea to ask a friend or family member to check your letter for spelling errors and typos to give you a fresh perspective Not including the name of the hiring manager If you don t know who is going to read your cover letter and resume try to find out When in doubt call the company and ask who the person in charge of that department is so you can target your letter appropriately Not writing to an audience Focus each letter on each employer According to Career Builder 44 percent of executives polled said it s common for applicants to use their cover letters to show they ve learned more about the job Doing so can give you an edge against the competition Failing to sell yourself If you undersell your skills and qualifications you won t make an impression on the reader Don t just talk about your accomplishments give concrete examples Regurgitating the resume Cover letters weren t meant as a tool to repeat everything that s in your resume It s a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you re applying for Include any training classes awards and recognition you ve received in the past that might give you an edge over the competition Buy a copy to keep reading
