service was designed not to help you but to wear you down This isn't a how to It's a how dare you Tenumah draws from years inside the belly of the corporate beast where service is measured in KPIs customers are problems to be deflected and automation is the holy grail so long as it keeps complaints quiet and costs lower He connects the dots between corporate incentives AI illusions and the slow erosion of human connection You'll learn Why wait times are a feature not a flaw How cost cutting masquerades as innovation What companies really mean by world class service And why the future of service depends on a revolt led by us Blending real stories biting wit and an operator's insider knowledge HOLD is a rallying cry for anyone who's tired of being treated like an afterthought and ready to demand something better Modern service is working Just not for you
