Entrepreneurs Tarun Khanna,2008-02-01 China and India are home to one third of the world s population And they re undergoing social and economic revolutions that are capturing the best minds and money of Western business In Billions of Entrepreneurs Tarun Khanna examines the entrepreneurial forces driving China's and India's trajectories of development. He shows where these trajectories overlap and complement one another and where they diverge and compete. He also reveals how Western companies can participate in this development. Through intriguing comparisons the author probes important differences between China and India in areas such as information and transparency, the roles of capital markets and talent, public and private property rights, social constraints on market forces, attitudes toward expatriates abroad and foreigners at home, entrepreneurial and corporate opportunities, and the importance of urban and rural communities. He explains how these differences will influence China's and India's future development, what the two countries can learn from each other, and how they will ultimately reshape business, politics, and society in the world around them. Engaging and incisive, this book is a critical resource for anyone working in China or India or planning to do business in these two countries. Management Science in China Liming Liu, 1999

Journal of Engineering Mechanics, 2005 Asian Security and China, 2000-2010 K. Santhanam, Srikanth Kondapalli, 2004. The Recent Rise in China's Economic, Technological, and Military Fields and Its Changing Policy Formulations Have Implications on How China Interacts With Other Countries. This subject has attracted the attention of several Asian and non-Asian countries for its impact on different aspects of Asian security. This book is a collection of 43 articles from well-known scholars and officials from about 20 countries. They reflect on major aspects of Asian security, China's modernization efforts, and its interactions with different countries in Asia and major powers during 2000-2010. They also cover non-military security challenges during this period. These high-quality papers would be a valuable resource and a ready research reckoner for China scholars and policy makers around the world. 18th Jan 2004

Aging China Robert Stowe, England, 2005-02-28. Aging China explores the potential effects of China's rapidly aging population on the economy, society, and the country. KWIC Index to the Science Abstracts of China Massachusetts Institute of Technology Libraries, 1960 Problems of Post-communism, 2005 ILSA Journal of International & Comparative Law, 2000 The Search for Deliberative Democracy in China Ethan J. Leib, Baogang He, 2010-04-15. This book investigates whether the theory of deliberative democracy developed in the West to focus democratic theory on the legitimization that deliberation can afford has any application to Chinese processes of democratization. It discovers pockets of theory especially useful to guide Chinese practices and pockets of Chinese practice that can in turn educate the West on possibilities for innovative uses of deliberative democratic theory. Proceedings of the National Science Council, Republic of China, 2001 Chinese (Taiwan) Yearbook of International Law and Affairs, 2006 African Research & Documentation, 2008 Foreign Direct Investment and Competition Policy after the Franco-German Manifesto. Embedding Political Dissent in Law Cosimo Marcantuono, 2023-01-30. Master's Thesis from the year 2022 in the subject Law, European and International Law, Intellectual Properties, grade 16/20, Leuven Catholic University, language English, abstract. This thesis examines the European paradigm shift, i.e. from unconditional openness to foreign direct investment to the statement we are not naive free traders pronounced by the former President of the European Commission Jean Claude Juncker toward the concerns raised by the Franco German Manifesto and the subsequent interventions of European legislator The research will focus on the new Foreign Direct Investments Screening Regulation and Cybersecurity Regulation Furthermore this thesis addresses a final proposal for a regulation to address state aid from non European countries as well as prospects for amending European competition law to meet Member States desire to create national and European champions Globalization the development of new technologies and the recent COVID 19 pandemic crisis prompted the reopening of old issues in the European Union concerning the demand for protection and the interplay between industrial policy and European competition law To preserve the internal market sovereignty and the future economic independence of Europe unified and strategic European thinking is required In this vein Germany and France formulated an industrial policy proposal to induce the European Union to amend its rules on the subject now perceived as outdated when confronted with increasingly fierce industrial competition from the Asian powers and the United States This understanding labelled as the Franco German Manifesto illustrates Member States concerns on the need for new European defence tools for technologies companies and the European market along with the reform of the current regulatory framework to enable European companies to compete globally The analysis performed in this thesis thus investigates the rationale underpinning the new regulations and their approach to the critical issues highlighted by the Member States The scrutiny of the mentioned regulations will concentrate on their effectiveness in countering risks related to i foreign acquisition of strategic assets ii new technologies and iii distortions of the internal market due to the lack of a global level playing field will lead this thesis to argue in favour of further action by the legislator

China and the Energy Equation in Asia Jean A. Garrison,2009 Why does China act as it does in its pursuit of energy security Are resource wars inevitable Going beyond traditional analyses that focus on China as a regional and global threat Jean Garrison sheds new light on the roots of the country s energy policy and the constraints that it faces Garrison eschews the zero sum approaches that underlie much conceptualization of the subject arguing that they are in large part based on the erroneous notion that China is a unitary actor with a coherent energy strategy Her attention to the competing developmental and environmental priorities at play in China s domestic politics is a critical contribution to the global energy security debate Publisher description International Social Security Review,2008
