

HSBC

London, UK, 21 December 2023

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Human Resources Internship position at HSBC UK, where I can leverage my strong academic background, practical experience, and passion for HR to contribute to the company's success.

At the University of Essex, I have gained a strong understanding of HR principles, practises, and legislation through courses such as HR Management, Employee Relations, and HRIS (Human Resource Information Systems). I have also gained hands-on experience managing teams, conducting employee satisfaction surveys, and handling HR queries, including payroll, staff contracts, and benefits administration.

My practical experiences in various roles, such as a Shift Manager at McDonald's and a Volunteer Coordinator at Remploy, have complemented my academic knowledge with hands-on skills in managing teams effectively, conducting employee satisfaction surveys, handling HR queries, and maintaining payroll and staff contracts.

I am drawn to HSBC UK's reputation for valuing employee engagement and upholding high HR standards. I am eager to contribute my skills and enthusiasm to your team and learn from experienced professionals. I am confident that my hard skills and experience will make me a valuable asset to HSBC UK.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing my qualifications further.

Sincerely,
Penelope Johnstone

EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK You ve probably figured out a few mistakes to avoid already but you d probably be surprised at what many employers are turned off by when reading cover letters Lack of proofreading This is a no brainer but many people often miss them or don t bother to spell check before sending out the cover letter and resume It s always a good idea to ask a friend or family member to check your letter for spelling errors and typos to give you a fresh perspective Not including the name of the hiring manager If you don t know who is going to read your cover letter and resume try to find out When in doubt call the company and ask who the person in charge of that department is so you can target your letter appropriately Not writing to an audience Focus each letter on each employer According to Career Builder 44 percent of executives polled said it s common for applicants to use their cover letters to show they ve learned more about the job Doing so can give you an edge against the competition Failing to sell yourself If you undersell your skills and qualifications you won t make an impression on the reader Don t just talk about your accomplishments give concrete examples Regurgitating the resume Cover letters weren t meant as a tool to repeat everything that s in your resume It s a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you re applying for Include any training classes awards and recognition you ve received in the past that might give you an edge over the competition Buy a copy to keep reading
