Social Justice, The Common Core, and Closing the Instructional Gap Janet C. Richards, Kristien Zenkov, 2015-10-21 This book critiques the Common Core State Standards CCSS and their development implementation and evaluation It offers a social justice perspective on CCSS with practical examples of curricula that empower diverse learners Chapters include first person accounts of integrating social justice with CCSS

Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self-Improvement Giuliana Ferri, 2026-04-30 Neoliberal Feminism and the Discourse of Self Improvement utilises feminist critical discourse analysis to examine the language and narratives within selfhelp literature targeted at women Giuliana Ferri critically explores the discourse of self improvement focusing on how neoliberal values of empowerment and individual fulfilment have been co opted by elite feminism as a technology of the self She unpacks how this discourse constructs an idealised image of the empowered woman one who is portrayed as capable of overcoming patriarchy through the affirmation of innate strength and resilience Drawing on Marxist feminism and feminist social reproduction theory the book highlights how neoliberal feminism markets women as entrepreneurs badass feminists and successful working mothers all while obscuring the realities of increasing work precarization and flexibilisation in post industrial societies Through its feminist critical discourse analysis the book reveals how these seemingly empowering narratives shift the responsibility for systemic change onto individuals rather than positioning feminism as a collective anti capitalist movement for liberation By integrating applied linguistics with Marxist feminism and social reproduction theory this text provides a unique interdisciplinary perspective making it a key reading for scholars and students of language gender and economic systems

Teaching Multicultural Children's Literature in a Diverse Society AnnMarie Alberton Gunn, Susan, V. Bennett, 2023-03-28 This textbook is a comprehensive resource for teaching multicultural children s literature Providing foundational information on how and why to integrate diverse children s literature into the classroom this book presents a necessary historical perspective on cultural groups in the United States and context for how to teach children s literature in a way that reflects and sustains students rich cultural backgrounds The historical insights and context on diverse cultural groups at the heart of the book allow readers to deepen their understanding of why teaching about cultural diversity is necessary for effective and inclusive education Part I offers foundational information on how to teach children s literature in a diverse society and Part II overviews pedagogy resources and guidance for teaching specific culturally and linguistically marginalized groups Each chapter contains book recommendations discussion questions and additional resources for teachers With authentic strategies and crucial background knowledge embedded in each chapter this text is essential reading for pre service and in service teachers and is ideal for courses in children s literature literacy methods instruction and multicultural education

Overcoming Educational Racism in the Community College Angela Long, 2023-07-03 Overall nearly half of all incoming community college students drop out within twelve months of enrolling with students of color and the economically disadvantaged faring far worse Given the high proportion of underserved students these colleges enroll the detrimental impact on their communities and for the national economy as a whole at a time of diversifying demographics is enormous This book addresses this urgent issue by bringing together nationally recognized researchers whose work throws light on the structural and systemic causes of student attrition as well as college presidents and leaders who have successfully implemented strategies to improve student outcomes The book is divided into five sections each devoted to a demographic group African Americans Native Americans American Indians Latino Americans Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders and Caucasian students in poverty Each section in turn comprises three chapters the first providing an up to date summary of research findings about barriers and attainments pertaining to the corresponding population the second the views of a community college president and the final chapter offering a range of models and best practices for achieving student success The analyses descriptions of cutting edge programs and recommendations for action will commend this volume to everyone concerned about equity and completion rates in the community college sector from presidents and senior administrators through faculty and student affairs leaders For educational researchers it fills blanks on data about attrition and persistence patterns of minority students attending community colleges Contributors Kenneth Atwater Glenda M Bivens Edward Bush Cara Crowley Maria Harper Marinick Joan B Holmes G Edward Hughes Lee Lambert Cynthia Lindquist Ta Sunka Wicahpi Win Star Horse Woman Angela Long Russell Lowery Hart Jamillah Moore Christopher M Mullin Brian Murphy Eduardo J Padron Deborah A Santiago Wei Song Robert Teranishi Rowena M Tomaneng James Utterback J Luke Wood

Lori Jamison Rog, 2014-01-17 The practical strategies in this insightful book show teachers how to give struggling readers the help they really need Struggling Readers delivers advice on teaching that targets students needs and offers kids opportunities to read texts that they can and want to read It highlights explicit instruction and guided practice in comprehension The book also and perhaps most importantly illustrates ways to help students build confidence in themselves as readers writers and thinkers

Teaching with a Strength-Based Approach Steven Baron, 2023-06-01 Helping students improve doesn't have to mean remediating their deficits In this important book Steven Baron shows the benefits of a strength based approach that instead emphasizes students assets and capabilities making them feel more connected to teachers and peers and more engaged in learning You'll learn practical research backed ways to help students of all grade levels identify and celebrate their strengths develop self confidence and a growth mindset build intrinsic motivation overcome a fear of making mistakes manage their feelings focus on gratitude and more You'll also discover ways to create a more strength based Individual Education Plan IEP increase your own resilience as a teacher and build a strength based culture throughout your school and district The appendix provides a variety of exercises you can use to help students focus on their strengths foster kindness and understand the impact of bullying Students spend approximately 1300 hours during the year with teachers this resource will help you make this time as affirming as possible so students are ready to learn and grow

Addressing the Needs of All Learners in the Era of Changing Standards Katherine S. McKnight,2016-06-08 The new standards were written to address the harsh realities for poor performance of American students across all grades levels k 12 According to NAEP National Assessment of Educational Progress data more than 60% of our students in grades 4 8 and 12 are not proficient readers and the United States is one of the lowest performing in mathematics The statistics are even more staggering for our children who live in poverty students with disabilities and English Language Learners The new standards have sent a clear message all students must be engaged deeper learning This deeper level of understanding and comprehension is communicated through a more sophisticated and independent level of applied literacy skills In this book some of our leading educators envision the standards as a vehicle to provide more rigorous instruction and illustrate how teachers are uniquely qualified to determine the most effective methods for developing students skills and close the achievement gap

Exercises in Architecture Simon Unwin,2022-08-01 This revised edition of Exercises in Architecture Learning to Think as an Architect is full of new content building on the success of the previous edition All the original exercises have been revised and new ones added with the format changing to allow the inclusion of more supplementary material The aim remains the same to help pre or early course architecture students begin and develop their ability to think as architects Learning to do architecture is tricky It involves awakening abilities that remain dormant in most people It is like learning language for the first time a task made more mystifying by the fact that architecture deals not in words but in places places to stand to walk to sit to hide to sleep to cook to eat to work to play to worship This book was written for those who want to be architects It suggests a basis for early experiences in a school of architecture but it could also be used in secondary schools and colleges or as self directed preparation for students in the months before entering professional education Exercises in Architecture builds on and supplements the methodology for architectural analysis presented in the author s previous book Analysing Architecture the Universal Language of Place Making fifth edition 2021 and demonstrated in his Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand Routledge 2015 Together the three books deal with the three aspects of learning any creative discipline 1 Analysing Architecture provides a methodology for analysis that develops an understanding of the way architecture works 2 Twenty Five Buildings explores and extends that methodology through analysis of examples as case studies and 3 Exercises in Architecture offers a way of expanding understanding and developing fluency by following a range of rudimentary and more sophisticated exercises Those who wish to become professional architects wherever in the world they might be must make a conscious effort to learn the universal language of architecture as place making to explore its powers and how they might be used The exercises in this book are designed to help
