Clinical Perspectives on Recent Trends in Autism Assessment, Diagnosis, and Treatment Hafeez, Sanam, 2026-01-29
The landscape of autism assessment and treatment has evolved dramatically shaped by advances in research and a growing recognition of neurodiversity across healthcare educational and social systems Clinicians today face both new opportunities and new complexities as they navigate earlier identification and a broadening range of evidence based and individualized interventions It is essential to examine these developments through a practical practitioner focused lens highlighting innovative approaches that are redefining best practices in autism care Clinical Perspectives on Recent Trends in Autism Assessment Diagnosis and Treatment examines the growing complexity surrounding autism identification exploring how expanding diagnostic criteria social media influence and inconsistent clinical practices have shaped public understanding Drawing upon clinical expertise and research it clarifies what defines autism outlines reliable diagnostic markers and addresses the challenges faced by professionals navigating an increasingly confusing diagnostic landscape Covering topics such as autism medical diagnosis and clinical treatment this book is an excellent resource for psychologists medical professionals clinicians mental health professionals academicians and graduate students

Child Influencers Crystal Abidin, 2026-01-15
Social media is proliferating with influencers but despite their prevalence and the extensive body of scholarship there is no comprehensive book that frames the historical and contemporary phenomenon of child influencers Drawing on original empirical ethnographic fieldwork and case studies from Asia Pacific and beyond and spanning various digital platforms this book looks at the emergence of child influencers and online fame more generally Crystal Abidin a pioneering scholar in this field discusses key historical milestones scandals and the social and cultural contexts that have led to ordinary children becoming famous online and how changing public discourse has resulted in important pivots in the ways we perceive them The book addresses and challenges some of the moral panics against the visibility of children on social media and gives voice and agency to the children their parents and guardians and the agents and managers who have been striving to improve the child influencer market through their everyday practices and community norms Child Influencers is illuminating reading for anyone who wants to understand the phenomena of children and online fame and why they have proliferated so quickly in society

Empowered and Unchained Conrad Riker, 101-01-01 Tired of Living in a World That Punishes You for Being a Man Ever feel like society brands you a toxin just for protecting your family or chasing success Watched your paycheck pride or kids vanish because the system rigged the game Sick of being told to open up only to get labeled weak or dumped for a higher status guy Discover why 93% of workplace deaths are men and how to stop being disposable Turn no fault divorce from a financial death sentence into a survivable skirmish Dismantle media lies that paint you as the villain in your own story Crush addiction with brotherhood not therapy couch sob stories Outsmart apps and laws designed to drain your wallet and dignity Weaponize evolutionary biology to dominate dating not simp for scraps Build a bug out life immune to false accusations and woke H R traps Resurrect the brotherhoods that made men gods not government dependents If you want to STOP APOLOGIZING for existing and START WINNING the war they deny is even happening buy this book today

Trafficking Data Aynne Kokas, 2023 In Trafficking Data Aynne Kokas looks at how technology firms in the two largest economies in the world the United States and China have exploited government policy and the lack thereof to gather information on citizens putting US national security at risk Kokas shows how US corporations influence on tech regulation paved the way for exploitative data gathering not just by US corporations but by Chinese corporations as well To resolve this issue in the US requires changing foundational values not just in the tech ecosystem but in the relationship between industry and government in the United States
