An Evaluation of Transactional Analysis Process as a Tool in Staff Relations Joanne Henry Moses, 1977

Is my boss a child? Stefano Calicchio, 2021-02-04 Why do people behave in a certain way at work What are their motivations Is there a methodological approach that can be used to frame the different attitudes and actions taken by individuals within corporate organisations in order to manage them in such a way as to foster situations of mutual benefit and synergy The theoretical model of transactional analysis was created to answer questions such as these i e to offer operational application to some of the main discoveries belonging to dynamic psychology and to the related mechanisms of functioning of our psyche This operational manual explains how to better understand what motivations drive people to make decisions at work what are the relative existential positions and how the constructive or destructive games that inevitably take place within companies develop The ultimate aim is to provide not only practical tools for solving problematic and uncomfortable situations but also a real means of empowerment for one's career and more generally for human resources management

Human Relations in Organizations Robert N. Lussier, 2002 Lussier's Human Relations in Organizations Applications and Skill Building 5e takes on an application skill building approach This approach suits professors who want to incorporate more activities and exercises into the classroom and students who want to be able to do more than just understand concepts but actually apply and develop skills that they can use in their daily and professional life The book continues to have integration balanced by a three pronged approach clear concise understanding of human relations organizational behavior concepts the application of HR OB concepts for critical thinking in the business world and the development of HR OB skills This approach allows the student to learn the concept apply it through various applications and situational activities and ultimately apply it to his/her own life

Transactional Analysis Journal ,1991 Conflict Resolution and the Scholarship of Engagement Cheryl Lynn Duckworth,Consuelo Doria Kelley,2012 As the field of conflict analysis and resolution continues to grow scholars and practitioners increasingly recognize that we can learn from one another Theory must be informed by practice and practice must draw on sound theory Above and beyond this lies a further recognition without at least attempting to actually engage and transform entrenched conflicts our field cannot hope to achieve its potential We will merely remain in a more diverse multi disciplinary ivory tower This edition breaks new ground in explicitly connecting the Scholarship of Engagement to the work of conflict resolution professionals including those in the academy those in the field and those who refuse to choose between the two The text explores a wide variety of examples of and thinking on the Scholarship of Engagement from participatory action research to peace education and from genocide prevention to community mediation and transitional justice
